Noel Hubler, 2025-05-16 Race and the Politics of Fear is a study of the role of race in American political history It takes a novel approach by using Aristotle s theory of the mixed regime to analyze the American system Aristotle s mixed regime containing elements of oligarchy and democracy was well known to the Founders who used it to design the Constitution Accordingly American political history has unfolded as a struggle between oligarchic and democratic forces Oligarchs have frequently used race to divide the people and maintain power This book traces the oligarchic construction of race from its creation in the Colonial period and through a study of four major figures James Madison helped formulate the Constitution to provide protection for the Southern oligarchies and was a founder of the Democratic Republican party dominated by Southern interests John C Calhoun s theory of the concurrent majority provided a blueprint for the South s political strategy in the Jim Crow era Ben Tillman redefined race primarily as a feeling as an excuse for the South s violent oppression of the black community Ronald Reagan retooled the traditional racist myths and made them palatable to a national audience Readable yet extensively documented it is appropriate for general audiences and scholars From Aldersgate to Azusa Street Henry H. Knight, 2010-08-11 Historians have noted the connections between the Wesleyan Methodist movement that began in the eighteenth century the emergence of African American Methodist traditions and an interdenominational Holiness movement in the nineteenth century and the birth of Pentecostalism in the twentieth century This volume written by historians theologians and pastors builds on that earlier work The contributors present a diverse array of key figures denominational leaders and mavericks institutional loyalists and come outers clergy and laity who embodied these movements The authors show that in spite of their differing historical and cultural contexts these movements constitute a distinct theological family whose confident and expectant faith in the transforming power of God has significant implications for the renewal of the contemporary church and its faithfulness to God s mission in the world today Contributors Corky Alexander Estrela Alexander Kimberly Ervin Alexander Leslie D Callahan Barry L Callen Douglas R Cullum Dennis C Dickerson D William Faupel Philip Hamner David Aaron Johnson J C Kelley Henry H Knight III William C Kostlevy Diane K Leclerc Joshua J McMullen Rodney McNeill Stephen W Rankin Harold E Raser Douglas M Strong Matthew K Thompson Wallace Thornton Jr L F Thuston Arlene Sanchez Walsh Steven J Land Laura Guy John H Wigger
