

Be Their Example

a Bible study
on 1 Timothy 4:12
for 9-12 year olds

The background of the entire slide is a photograph of a family of three (a man, a woman, and a child) standing on a beach at sunset. They are silhouetted against the bright, orange and yellow sky. The man is on the left, the woman is in the center, and the child is on the right. They are all standing with their hands on their hips, looking out at the ocean. The water is dark and calm, reflecting the light from the sky.

African-American Children at Church Wendy L. Haight, 2002 African American Children at Church explores African American socialization beliefs and practices based on findings of a unique four year long study in a Baptist church in Salt Lake City Utah By combining the ethnographic approaches of anthropology with the detailed naturalistic observations of developmental psychology Dr Haight provides a rich description of actual socialization practices along with an interpretation of what those patterns mean to the participants themselves Based on extensive interviews with successful African American adults involved with children this book begins with the exploration of adults beliefs about socialization issues focusing on the role of religion in the development of resilience Drawing from naturalistic observations of adult child interaction the book then describes actual socialization contexts and practices that help to nurture competencies in African American children The text focuses on Sunday School and includes narrative practices and patterns of adult child conflict and play Outlines
