Beacon Lights of History John Lord,2009-08 First published posthumously in 1902 this collection of the lectures of American historian JOHN LORD 1810 1894 is a charming rummage through 6 000 years of European and American history exploring the past from the old pagan civilizations to modern leaders and cultures on both sides of the Atlantic This replica edition features all the original illustrations hard to come by in other recent versions It will delight both readers of history and lovers of beautiful classic books Volume I The Old Pagan Civilizations covers the ancient religions Egyptian Assyrian Babylonian and Persian the religions of India Brahmanism and Buddhism the classic mythology of the Greeks and Romans Confucius ancient philosophy Socrates and more Beacon Lights of History John Lord LL.D.,John Lord,2013-08 An early historical account of the old pagan civilizations through to modern Europe and America written by historian and lecturer John Lord LL D This work gives accurate definitions and explanations of most of the world s religions from Confucianism and Buddhism to Christianity and Greek Philosophy This interesting world wide perspective on religions is an enlightening and educational read Great Women John Lord,2019-04-07 Beacon Lights of History is a 14 volume set first published in 1902 This collection of John Lords lectures spans 6 000 years of European and American history The first 12 volumes are all Lords work the 13th was completed from his notes and the 14th is follow ups by other authors Beacon Lights of History Volume I (the Old Pagan Civilizations) John Lord,2013-11 It is my object in this book on the old Pagan civilizations to present the salient points only since an exhaustive work is impossible within the limits of these volumes The practical end which I have in view is to collate a sufficient number of acknowledged facts from which to draw sound inferences in reference to the progress of the human race and the comparative welfare of nations in ancient and modern times The first inquiry we naturally make is in regard to the various religious systems which were accepted by the ancient nations since religion in some form or other is the most universal of institutions and has had the earliest and the greatest influence on the condition and life of peoples that is to say on their civilizations in every period of the world And necessarily considering what is the object in religion when we undertake to examine any particular form of it which has obtained among any people or at any period of time we must ask How far did its priests and sages teach exalted ideas of Deity of the soul and of immortality How far did they arrive at lofty and immutable principles of morality How far did religion such as was taught practically affect the lives of those who professed it and lead them to just and reasonable treatment of one another or to holy contemplation or noble deeds or sublime repose in anticipation of a higher and endless life And how did the various religions compare with what we believe to be the true religion Christianity in its pure and ennobling truths its inspiring promises and its quiet influence in changing and developing character I assume that there is no such thing as a progressive Christianity except in so far as mankind grow in the realization of its lofty principles that there has not been and will not be any improvement on the ethics and spiritual truths revealed by Jesus the Christ but that they will remain forever the standard of faith and practice I assume also that Christianity has elements which are not to be found in any other religion such as original teachings divine revelations and sublime truths I know it is the fashion with many thinkers to maintain that improvements on the Christian system are both possible and probable and that there is scarcely a truth which Christ and his apostles declared which cannot be found in some other ancient religion when divested of the errors there incorporated with it This notion I repudiate I believe that systems of religion are perfect or imperfect true or false just so far as they agree or disagree with Christianity and that to the end of time all systems are to be measured by the Christian standard and not Christianity by any other system

Beacon Lights of History Volume I: the Old Pagan Civilizations John Lord,2015-12-19 John Lord was a 19th century American historian who wrote several comprehensive histories about antiquity including this one about ancient civilizations and their religions From the preface It has been my object in these Lectures to give the substance of accepted knowledge pertaining to the leading events and characters of history and in treating such a variety of subjects extending over a period of more than six thousand years each of which might fill a volume I have sought to present what is true rather than what is new Although most of these Lectures have been delivered in some form during the last forty years in most of the cities and in many of the literary institutions of this country I have carefully revised them within the last few years in order to avail myself of the latest light shed on the topics and times of which they treat The revived and wide spread attention given to the study of the Bible under the stimulus of recent Oriental travels and investigations not only as a volume of religious guidance but as an authentic record of most interesting and important events has encouraged me to include a series of Lectures on some of the remarkable men identified with Jewish history Of course I have not aimed at an exhaustive criticism in these Biblical studies since the topics cannot be exhausted even by the most learned scholars but I have sought to interest intelligent Christians by a continuous narrative interweaving with it the latest accessible knowledge bearing on the main subjects If I have persisted in adhering to the truths that have been generally accepted for nearly two thousand years I have not disregarded the light which has been recently shed on important points by the great critics of the progressive schools
