Geographies of Gendered Punishment Anastasia Chamberlen, Mahuya Bandyopadhyay, 2024-07-25 This edited book explores new and enduring themes in the gendered experience of incarceration across the world Capturing global debates and research on women s treatment their coping and resistances in penal settings the collection promotes a feminist agenda that is attuned to the inherently patriarchal and intersectionally oppressive structures of contemporary punishment It seeks to map policies and campaigns around women s criminalisation across the world and offers one of the most comprehensive overviews of women s imprisonment experiences across the Global North and Global South Each chapter focusses on a different geographic context and theme and aims to provide the intellectual groundwork for a critical world wide movement advocating for women s decarceration As a whole the collection offers a robust empirical understanding of women s punishment in non western Global South contexts and also revisits ongoing debates in feminist accounts of punishment in the Global North In doing so the collection examines hierarchical geopolitical relations between privileged and underprivileged nations reflecting global inequalities and structural violence rooted in legacies of imperialism and colonialism Overall the edited collection shows how centering women s peripheralized experiences can radically reshape our understanding of punishment and offers a new intellectual methodological and political means through which to think about gendered identity and imprisonment in the 21st Century

Tools for Strengths-Based Assessment and Evaluation Catherine Simmons, 2012-11-08 Traditionally assessment and evaluation have focused on the negative aspects or deficits of a client's presentation. Yet strengths, health, and those things that are going right in a person's life are key protective factors in the prevention and treatment of many mental health problems. Thus measuring strengths is an important component of a balanced assessment and evaluation process. This is the first compendium of more than 140 valid and reliable strengths-based assessment tools that clinicians, researchers, educators, and program evaluators can use to assess a wide array of positive attributes including well-being, mindfulness, optimism, resilience, humor, aspirations, values, sources of support, emotional intelligence, and much more. These tools provide a clear picture of an individual's strengths while being easy to complete, score, and interpret. The scales and instruments included are consistently formatted, are organized according to construct measures, and include tools for working with adults, couples, families, children, and special populations. They represent a wide range of theoretical approaches and were written by a diverse array of professionals including social workers, psychologists, nurses, physicians, and sociologists. Partial List of Instruments: Adult Dispositional Hope Scale, Assessing Emotions Scale, Flourishing Scale, Five Facet Mindfulness Questionnaire, Positive States of Mind Scale, A Measure of Expectations for Partner, Multidimensional Sense of Humor Scale, Parenting Sense of Competence Scale, Personal Wellbeing Index, Proactive Coping Inventory, Psychological Empowerment Scale, Stress-Related Growth Scale, Social Wellbeing Scales, Wellness Beliefs Scale.
