Love, Honour and God Mikhail Pelevin,2025-08-28 Love Honour and God tells about the talented and determined people who challenged the dominance of the Persophone written culture and created literature in their mother tongue Pashto Offering insights into the lives and literary accomplishments of many acclaimed and less known

Pashtun authors of the early modern period this book traces the development of Pashto writings from around 1530 to 1830 as a considered pursuit of an educational mission and a verbal affirmation of ethnic identity Based primarily on original texts in Pashto verse and prose the book explores social views aesthetic preferences and spiritual values that underlie modern ideologies and cultural awareness of Pashto speaking communities in Afghanistan and Pakistan To Be Oneself Abdallah Nacereddine,2008-05-13 This autobiography gives a detailed account of his childhood in a primitive society and the conditions prevailing during the Franco Algerian conflict and its aftermath The book describes his search for a place to settle and his quest to find a niche in society and his chosen profession tracing his philosophical and psychological course through life It portrays life in the Muslim community in the USA the author s relationships with people of all walks of life and origins and his teaching experiences in an international multicultural context Widely read in world philosophy and religions and psychology Abdallah Nacereddine provides a penetrating insight into human nature the world over with the accounts of his experiences from philosophical and psychological points of view and his comments on the international events in which he was caught up His life history is sometimes sad often funny but above all thought provoking The Book in Mamluk Egypt and Syria (1250-1517) Doris Behrens-Abouseif,2018-10-08 This book is the first to date to be dedicated to the circulation of the book as a commodity in the Mamluk sultanate It discusses the impact of princely patronage on the production of books the formation and management of libraries in religious institutions their size and their physical setting It documents the significance of private collections and their interaction with institutional libraries and the role of charitable endowments waqf in the life of libraries The market as a venue of intellectual and commercial exchanges and a production centre is explored with references to prices and fees The social and professional background of scribes and calligraphers occupies a major place in this study which also documents the chain of master calligraphers over the entire Mamluk period For her study the author relies on biographical dictionaries chronicles waqf documents and manuscripts Studies in the Islamic Decorative Arts Robert Hillenbrand,2019-12-31 Islamic artists channelled their energies not into easel painting and large scale sculpture but rather into what Western scholars obeying a very different hierarchy of art forms rather disparagingly term the decorative arts or even the minor arts In point of fact some of the greatest masterpieces of Islamic art are in the media of ceramics metalwork textiles ivory and glass Often the images they bear express a complex set of meanings for Islam inherited much material from the iconographic systems of earlier civilizations notably those of the ancient Near East and of the classical world Islam also developed its own distinctive vocabulary of signs and symbols Accordingly questions of iconography and meaning bulk large among the studies gathered together in the present volume These studies written over a period of almost thirty years and taken from a wide variety of published sources deal with aspects of the decorative arts from Spain to India and from the 7th to the 17th century They focus in turn upon ceramics and metalwork on coins carpets and calligraphy and on carving in wood and ivory They are arranged under three headings The first comprises general surveys of the field covering the content of these arts and confronting the challenges they present such as the Islamic approach to three dimensional sculpture The second deals with questions of iconography and meaning while the third comprises a series of studies devoted to specific media such as ivory woodwork and numismatics This volume therefore offers not only a general introduction to some of the problems posed by Islamic art but also readings of key objects in an attempt to explore their meaning and finally an in depth focus on individual objects representing specific genres and media

The Top Books of the Year How To Become A Professional Calligrapher The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. How To Become A Professional Calligrapher : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. How To Become A Professional Calligrapher : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
