Sue Vice

The White Hotel By Dm Thomas:

The White Hotel D. M. Thomas, 1990-04 A chronicle of a woman's life told first through Freud's letters then through a case history of her analysis and finally through conventional narrative

Holocaust Fiction Sue Vice, 2003-09-02 Examining the controversies that have accompanied the publication of novels representing the Holocaust this compelling book explores such literature to analyze their violently mixed receptions and what this says about the ethics and practice of millennial Holocaust literature The novels examined including some for the first time are Time's Arrow by Martin Amis The White Hotel by D M Thomas The Painted Bird by Jerzy Kosinski Schindler's List by Thomas Keneally Sophie's Choice by William Styron The Hand that Signed the Paper by Helen Darville Taking issue with the idea that the Holocaust should only be represented factually this compelling book argues that Holocaust fiction is not only legitimate but an important genre that it is essential to accept In a growing area of interest Sue Vice adds a new intelligent and contentious voice to the key debates within Holocaust studies

The Soul is a Far Country Richard K. Cross, 1992

Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll, 2007

Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum

Caught by History Ernst van Alphen, 1997 In the face of strong moral and aesthetic pressure to deal with the Holocaust in strictly historical and documentary modes this book discusses why and how reenactment of the Holocaust in art and imaginative literature can be successful in simultaneously presenting analyzing and working through this apocalyptic moment in human history In pursuing his argument the author explores such diverse materials and themes as the testimonies of Holocaust survivors the works of such artists and writers as Charlotte Salomon Christian Boltanski and Armando and the question of what it means to live in a house built by a Jew who was later transported to the death camps He shows that reenactment as an artistic project also functions as a critical strategy one that unlike historical methods requiring a mediator speaks directly to us and lures us into the Holocaust We are then placed in the position of experiencing and being the subjects of that history We are there and history is present but not quite A confrontation with Nazism or with the Holocaust by means of a re enactment takes place within the representational realm of art Our access to this past is no longer mediated by the account of a witness by a

narrator by the eye of a photographer We do not respond to a re presentation of the historical event but to a presentation or performance of it and our response is direct or firsthand in a different way That different way of keeping in touch is the subject of inquiry that propels this study New York Magazine ,1981-03-16 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Moments of Moment Wim Tigges,1999 a sudden spiritual manifestation whether in the vulgarity of speech or of gesture or in a memorable phase in the mind itself Thus Stephen Dedalus in James Joyce s Stephen Hero defines the phenomenon that has ever since been known as the literary epiphany The essays gathered in this volume comprise a wide survey of this phenomenon With recurrent reference to its most famous creators notably William Wordsworth who was the first to consciously explore and delineate those momentous spots in time in his Prelude Walter Pater James Joyce and Virginia Woolf this book intends to provide a broad and unbiased exploration into the various types and categories of the moment of moment that can be distinguished ranging from William Blake Ann Radcliffe and Charles Maturin through the nineteenth century sonnet tradition and the naturalistic novel to modernist and postmodernist exponents such as Ezra Pound and Elizabeth Bowen Philip larkin and Seamus Heaney and include contributions by acclaimed experts in the field such as Martin Bidney Robert Langbaum Jay Losey and Ashton Nichols

Magical Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora,Wendy B. Faris,1995 On magical realism in literature Inscribing the Other Sander L. Gilman,1991-01-01 Inscripting the Other focuses on great authors who have by birth or choice or both found themselves outside the mainstream of their culture but who have still wished to address it Goethe Freud Wilde Heine Nietzsche and Isaac Bashevis Singer among others In thirteen probing provocative essays Sander L Gilman reinterprets their writing as it reveals their efforts to come to terms with their real or imagined sense of difference The chapters treat many themes and problems ranging widely from the romantic notion of the transcendent artist to the twentieth century artists in exile and employing the perspectives of psychiatry aesthetics photography politics and the history of mentalities The fate of Jewish writers in modern Germany or of Yiddish writers whose language is devalued in European culture is explored The theme of difference and its artistic and intellectual manifestations runs throughout the book which includes discussions of Goethe s and Wilde s homosexuality Nietzsche s madness Heine s refusal to be photographed and Primo Levi s internment at Auschwitz as well as an interview with Singer In a frank autobiographical introduction Gilman attempts to understand his own writing as an exercise in inscribing the Other in dealing with is own sense of difference through artistic creation

After the End James Berger,1999 In this study of the cultural pursuit of the end and what follows Berger contends that every apocalyptic depiction leaves something behind some mixture of paradise and wasteland Combining literary psychoanalytic and historical methods Berger mines these depictions for their weight and influence on current culture He applies wide ranging evidence from science fiction to Holocaust literature from Thomas Pynchon to talk shows from American politics to the fiction of Toni Morrison to reveal how representations of apocalyptic endings are indelibly marked by catastrophic histories Lies that Tell the Truth Anne C. Hegerfeldt, 2005 Magic realism has long been treated as a phenomenon restricted to postcolonial literature Drawing on works from Britain Lies that Tell the Truth compellingly shows how magic realist fiction can be produced also at what is usually considered to be the cultural centre without forfeiting the mode's postcolonial attitude and aims A close analysis of works by Angela Carter Salman Rushdie Jeanette Winterson Robert Nye and others reveals how the techniques of magic realism generate a complex critique of the West's rational empirical worldview from within a Western context itself Understanding magic realism as a fictional analogue of anthropology and sociology Lies that Tell the Truth reads the mode as a frequently humorous but at the same time critical investigation into people's attempts to make sense of their world By laying bare the manifold strategies employed to make meaning magic realist fiction indicates that knowledge and reality cannot be reduced to hard facts but that people's dreams and fears ideas stories and beliefs must equally be taken into account

Story Logic David Herman, 2004-01-01 Featuring a major synthesis and critique of interdisciplinary narrative theory Story Logic marks a watershed moment in the study of narrative David Herman argues that narrative is simultaneously a cognitive style a discourse genre and a resource for writing Because stories are strategies that help humans make sense of their world narratives not only have a logic but also are a logic in their own right providing an irreplaceable resource for structuring and comprehending experience Story Logic brings together and pointedly examines key concepts of narrative in literary criticism linguistics and cognitive science supplementing them with a battery of additional concepts that enable many different kinds of narratives to be analyzed and understood By thoroughly tracing and synthesizing the development of different strands of narrative theory and provocatively critiquing what narratives are and how they work Story Logic provides a powerful interpretive tool kit that broadens the applicability of narrative theory to more complex forms of stories however and wherever they appear Story Logic offers a fresh and incisive way to appreciate more fully the power and significance of narratives

History in Literature Edward Quinn, 2014-05-14 Alphabetically arranged articles discuss the major events figures and movements of the twentieth century and how they have been depicted in literature

The Adaptation Industry Simone Murray, 2012-03-12 Adaptation constitutes the driving force of contemporary culture with stories adapted across an array of media formats However adaptation studies has been concerned almost exclusively with textual analysis in particular with compare and contrast studies of individual novel and film pairings This has left almost completely unexamined crucial questions of how adaptations come to be made what are the industries with the greatest stake in making them and who the decision makers are in the adaptation process The Adaptation Industry re imagines adaptation not as an abstract process but as a material industry It presents the adaptation industry as a cultural economy of six interlocking institutions stakeholders and decision makers all engaged in the actual business of adapting texts authors agents publishers book prize committees scriptwriters and screen producers and distributors Through trading in intellectual property rights to cultural works these six nodal points in the adaptation network are tightly interlinked with success for one party potentially auguring for success in other spheres But marked rivalries between these institutional forces also exist with competition characterizing every aspect of the adaptation process This book constructs an overdue sociology of contemporary literary adaptation never losing sight of the material and institutional dimensions of this powerful process

Reinventing the Sublime Steven Vine, 2013-06-06 Examines the return of the sublime in post modernity and at intimations of a post Romantic sublime in Romanticism itself This work looks at 18th century Romantic modernist and post modern inventions of the sublime alongside contemporary critical accounts of the relationship of sublimity to subjectivity aesthetics politics and history

Holocaust Literature David G. Roskies, Naomi Diamant, 2012 A comprehensive assessment of Holocaust literature from World War II to the present day

Like and Unlike God John Neary, 1999 Neary argues that each type of imagination analogical and dialectical is the other's supplement they need each other to create a vision that is sharp rich and whole

BOOK JACKET

Transgressions of Reading Robert D. Newman, 1993 It is often claimed that we know ourselves and the world through narratives In this book Robert D Newman portrays narrative engagement as a process grounded in psychoanalytic theory to explain how readers or listeners or viewers manage to engage with specific narratives and derive from them a personal experience Newman describes this psychodrama of narrative engagement as that of exile and return an experience in which narrative becomes a type of homeland beckoning and elusive endlessly defining and disrupting the borders of a reader's identity Within this paradigm he considers a fascinating variety of narrative texts from the Jim Jones episode in Guyana to Freud's repression of personal history in his story of Moses from a surrealist collage novel by Max Ernst to the horror films of Alfred Hitchcock from the works of James Joyce Ariel Dorfman Milan Kundera and D M Thomas to the tales of abjection in pornography Transgressions of Reading is itself an engaging work as interesting for its provocative readings of particular works as for its theoretical insights It will appeal to readers from all fields in which narrative plays a crucial role in the study of film and art modern and contemporary literature popular culture and feminist psychoanalytic and reader response theory

Cultures of Forgery Judith Ryan, Alfred Thomas, 2013-05-13 In Cultures of Forgery leading literary studies and cultural studies scholars examine the double meaning of the word forge to create or to form on the one hand and to make falsely on the other
