peasant's hut but the man was not at home The peasant's wife promised that the money should be paid next week but she would not pay it herself Then Simon called on another peasant but this one swore he had no money and would only pay twenty kopeks which he owed for a pair of boots Simon had mended Simon then tried to buy the sheep skins on credit but the dealer would not trust him Bring your money said he then you may have your pick of the skins We know what debt collecting is like So all the business the shoemaker did was to get the twenty kopeks for boots he had mended and to take a pair of felt boots a peasant gave him to the sole with leather Simon felt downhearted He spent the twenty kopeks on vodka and started homeward without having bought any skins In the morning he had felt the frost but now after drinking the vodka he felt warm even without a sheep skin coat He trudged along striking his stick on the frozen earth with one hand swinging the felt boots with the other and talking to himself
