Three Lillian Hellman, 1979 Portraits and recollections marked by the playwright's characteristic wit candor and intelligence are presented exactly as first published Lillian Hellman Dorothy Gallagher, 2014-01-28 Glamorous talented audacious Lillian Hellman knew everyone did everything had been everywhere By the age of twenty nine she had written The Children's Hour the first of four hit Broadway plays and soon she was considered a member of America's first rank of dramatists a position she maintained for more than twenty five years Apart from her literary accomplishments eight original plays and three volumes of memoirs Hellman lived a rich life filled with notable friendships controversial political activity travel and love affairs most importantly with Dashiell Hammett But by the time she died the truth about her life and works had been called into question Scandals attached to her name having to do with sex with money and with her own veracity Dorothy Gallagher confronts the conundrum that was Lillian Hellman a woman with a capacity to inspire outrage as often as admiration Exploring Hellman's leftist politics her Jewish and Southern background and her famous testimony before the House Un American Activities Committee Gallagher also undertakes a new reading of Hellman's carefully crafted memoirs and plays in which she is both revealed and hidden Gallagher sorts through the facts and the myths arriving at a sharply drawn portrait of a woman who lived large to the end of her remarkable life and never backed down from a fight authenticity He attempts to resolve some of the paradoxes of recent autobiographical theory by looking at the classic question of design and truth in autobiography from the underside with a focus on lying rather than truth Originally published in 1990 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Adams Patricia Hampl John Updike James McConkey and Lillian Hellman In the introduction Eakin makes a case for reopening the file on reference in autobiography and in the first chapter he establishes the complexity of the referential aesthetic of the genre the intricate interplay of fact and fiction in such texts In subsequent chapters he explores some of the major contexts of reference in autobiography the biographical the social and cultural the historical and finally underlying all the rest the somatic and temporal dimensions of the lived experience of identity In his discussion of contemporary theories of the self Eakin draws especially on cultural anthropology and developmental psychology
