After Human Thomas Connolly, 2021-04-01 Shortlisted for the British Fantasy Awards Non Fiction 2022 Shortlisted for the Locus Science Fiction Foundation Non Fiction Award 2022 SF has long been understood as a literature of radical potential capable of imagining entirely new worlds and ways of being Yet SF has been slow to embrace posthumanist ideas about the human subject The human of the SF tradition is instead a liminal being caught somewhere between the transcendent Man of classical humanism and the subversive cyborg of posthumanist thought This study offers a critical history of the human in SF By examining a range of SF works from 1818 to the 1970s it seeks to answer some key questions What role does technology play in defining what it means to be or not to be human How do these writers understand the relationship between humanity and the rest of nature And how can we use SF to re examine our ethical position towards the non human world and move to more egalitarian understandings of the human subject The Rise and Fall of American Science Fiction, from the 1920s to the 1960s Gary Westfahl, 2019-10-04 By examining important aspects of science fiction in the twentieth century this book explains how the genre evolved to its current state Close critical attention is given to topics including the art that has accompanied science fiction the subgenres of space opera and hard science fiction the rise of SF anthologies and the burgeoning impact of the marketplace on authors Included are in depth studies of key texts that contributed to science fiction's growth including Philip Francis Nowlan's first Buck Rogers story the first published stories of A E van Vogt and the early juveniles of Isaac Asimov Arthur C Clarke and Robert Heinlein Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ... Wherein the Copyright Has Been Completed by the Deposit of Two Copies in the Office Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1944 Catalog of Copyright Entries, 1944 Contemporary artists and archives Sylvie Mokhtari, 2004 R flexion sur l'utilisation de l'archive en tant qu'objet m thode image ou po tique par les artistes pour cr er leur oeuvres et analyse de ce que cette relation produit ou implique Ces contributions concluent le projet Vektor archives europ ennes de l'art contemporain soutenu par l'Union europ enne dans le cadre du programme Culture 2000 Avec les cahiers des artistes en fin d'ouvrage Fake Physics: Spoofs, Hoaxes and Fictitious Science Andrew May, 2019-04-12 People are used to seeing fake physics in science fiction concepts like faster than light travel antigravity and time travel to name a few The fiction label ought to be a giveaway but some SF writers especially those with a background in professional science are so adept at technobabble that it can be difficult to work out what is fake and what is real To confuse matters further Isaac Asimov's 1948 piece about the fictitious time travelling substance thiotimoline was written not as a short story but in the form of a spoof research paper The boundaries between fact and fiction can also be blurred by physicists themselves sometimes unintentionally sometimes with tongue in cheek sometimes to satirize perceived weaknesses in research practices Examples

range from hoaxes aimed at exposing poor editorial standards in academic publications through thought experiments that sound like the plot of a sci fi movie to April Fools jokes Even the latter may carry a serious message whether about the sociology of science or poking fun at legitimate but far out scientific hypotheses This entertaining book is a joyous romp exploring the whole spectrum of fake physics from science to fiction and back again Judging a Book by Its Cover Nickianne Moody,2016-12-05 How do books attract their readers This collection takes a closer look at book covers and their role in promoting sales and shaping readers responses Judging a Book by Its Cover brings together leading scholars many with experience in the publishing industry who examine the marketing of popular fiction across the twentieth century and beyond Using case studies and grounding their discussions historically and methodologically the contributors address key themes in contemporary media literary publishing and business studies related to globalisation the correlation between text and image identity politics and reader reception Topics include book covers and the internet bookstore the links between books the music industry and film literary prizes and the selling of books subcultures and sales of young adult fiction the cover as a signifier of literary value and the marketing of ethnicity and lesbian pulp fiction This exciting collection opens a new field of enquiry for scholars of book history literature media and communication studies marketing and cultural studies

Analog Science Fiction & Fact ,2005 Chain Reactions Lucy Jane Santos,2024-07-04 Tracing uranium's past and how it intersects with our understanding of other radioactive elements this book aims to disentangle our attitudes and to unpick the atomic mindset Chain Reactions looks at the fascinating often forgotten stories that can be found throughout the history of the element Ranging from glassworks to penny stocks medicines to weapons something to be feared to a powerful source of energy this global history not only explores the development of our scientific understanding of uranium but also shines a light on its cultural and social impact By understanding our nuclear past we can move beyond the ideological opposition to atomic technology and encourage a more nuanced dialogue about whether it is feasible and desirable to have a genuinely nuclear powered future Contact with Extraterrestrial Intelligence and Human Law Michael Bohlander,2023-08-07 It is statistically unlikely that humans are the only intelligent species in the universe Nothing about the others will be known until contact is made beyond a radio signal from space that merely tells us they existed when it was sent That contact may occur tomorrow in a hundred years or never If it does it will be a high risk scenario for humanity It may be peaceful or hostile Relying on alien altruism and benign intentions is wishful thinking We need to begin identifying as a planetary species and develop a global consensus on how to respond in either scenario Digital Developments Dominik S. Highways of the Mind Helen J. Burgess, Jeanne Hamming, 2014-10-31 Stories of the open road have a powerful sway over our imagination particularly in America where the vast web of interstate highways transformed the national identity as well as the national landscape Sometimes seen as the harbinger of a golden future other times as the conduit of a dehumanized dystopia the highway reflects some of our most potent fantasies as well as our deepest anxieties about modernity ecology commerce and individuality In a work rich in embedded multimedia Helen J Burgess and Jeanne Hamming look at cultural and media representations of the highway in planning documents industrial films corporate ephemera and science fiction narratives to explore how these stories of the road have reconfigured how we think about ourselves and our world Highways of the Mind available only on the Apple iBookstore site in iBook format shows how the stories we tell about the highway whether in the service of national pride corporate advertising urban planning or apocalyptic warnings determine how we imagine or fail to imagine the possibilities for human action in built environments Fictional Languages in Science Fiction Literature
