At The Limits Of Justice Women Of Colour On Terror:

At the Limits of Justice Suvendrini Perera, Sherene Razack, 2014-09-24 The fear and violence that followed the events of September 11 2001 touched lives all around the world even in places that few would immediately associate with the global war on terror In At the Limits of Justice twenty nine contributors from six countries explore the proximity of terror in their own lives and in places ranging from Canada and the United States to Jamaica Palestine Israel Australia Guyana Chile Pakistan and across the African continent In this collection female scholars of colour including leading theorists on issues of indigeneity race and feminism examine the political social and personal repercussions of the war on terror through contributions that range from testimony and poetry to scholarly analysis Inspired by both the personal and the global impact of this violence within the war on terror they expose the way in which the war on terror is presented as a distant and foreign issue at the same time that it is deeply present in the lives of women and others all around the world An impassioned but rigorous examination of issues of race and gender in contemporary politics At the Limits of Justice is also a call to create moral communities which will find terror and violence unacceptable

At the Limits of Justice Suvendrini Perera, Sherene H. Razack, 2014-01-01 In At the Limits of Justice twenty nine contributors from six countries examine the political social and personal repercussions of the war on terror

Decolonising Criminology Harry Blagg, Thalia Anthony, 2019-11-23 This book undertakes an exploratory exercise in decolonizing criminology through engaging postcolonial and postdisciplinary perspectives and methodologies Through its historical and political analysis and place based case studies it challenges criminological inquiry by installing colonial structures of power at the centre of the contemporary criminological debate This work unseats the Western nation state as the singular point of departure for comparative criminological and socio legal research Decolonising Criminology argues that postcolonial and postdisciplinary critique can open up new pathways for criminological investigation It builds on recent debates in criminology from outside of the Anglosphere The authors deploy a number of heuristic devices perspectives and theories generally ignored by criminologists of the Global North and engage perspectives concerned with articulating new decolonised epistemologies of the Global South This book disputes the view that colonisation is a thing of the past and provides lessons for the Global North

Women's Activist Theatre in Jamaica and South Africa Nicosia M. Shakes, 2023-08-15 Theater is an essential theoretical and practical site for forging Black radical thought Africana feminisms and womanism Nicosia M Shakes draws on ethnographic research in Jamaica and South Africa to analyze the vital relationship between activism and theater production Concentrating on four performance events Shakes situates the work of theater groups and projects within a trajectory of women led social justice movements established in Jamaica South Africa and globally from the early 2000s to the present Her analysis reveals movements driven by Black women's artistic intellectual and organizational labor and focused on issues that range from sexual violence to reproductive justice to the spatial manifestations of racial gender and economic oppression Shakes shows how theater's political and pedagogical roles become entangled with histories and geographies of oppression and resistance the identities and connections created by movements of people in the context of colonial and settler colonial histories and ideas of womanism and feminism Media, Communication and the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup Molly Yanity, Danielle Sarver

Coombs, 2025-02-27 This book takes a close look at the themes of media and communication in the context of the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup one of the most attended women's sporting events in history Featuring the work of leading researchers from around the world the book examines how the tournament was represented through traditional digital and social forms of media and considers how an analysis of media and communications in around and after the tournament can help to illuminate our understanding of key themes in the study of women and sport The book presents a series of important and fascinating cases including media representation of Muslim women at the tournament analysis of media reaction to USWNT results the role of podcasts in the coverage of the tournament and a social media analysis of sexual violence toward women athletes at the WWC that together form a multi-layered picture of a seminal event in the history of women's sport This book is vital reading for anybody with an interest in women's sport gender and sport the sociology of sport media studies communication studies event studies or sport business and management The Oxford Handbook of Late Colonial

Insurgencies and Counter-Insurgencies Martin Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2023 Beginning with Britain's 1948 declaration of a Malayan Emergency and ending with the 1973 withdrawal of US ground troops from Vietnam this Handbook connects ideas about contested decolonization and the insurgencies that inspired it with an analysis of patterns and singularities in the conflicts that precipitated the collapse of overseas empires Everyday Violence in the Lives of Youth Helene

Berman, Catherine Richardson/Kinewesquao, Kate Elliott, Eugenia Canas, 2020-07-25T00:00:00Z Though interpersonal violence is widely studied much less has been done to understand structural violence the often invisible patterns of inequality that reproduce social relations of exclusion and marginalization through ideologies policies stigmas and discourses attendant to gender race class and other markers of social identity Structural violence normalizes experiences like poverty ableism sexual harassment racism and colonialism and erases their social and political origins The legal structures that provide impunity for those who exploit youth are also part of structural violence's machinery Working with Indigenous queer immigrant and homeless youth across Canada this five-year Youth-based Participatory Action Research project used art to explore the many ways that structural violence harms youth destroying hope optimism a sense of belonging and a connection to civil society However recognizing that youth are not merely victims Everyday Violence in the Lives of Youth also examines the various ways youth respond to and resist this violence to preserve their dignity well-being and inclusion in society

Counterterrorism and Colonialism Alice Finden, 2025-03-31 This book uses feminist and postcolonial approaches to archival research and interviews to interrogate the persistence of colonial logics in contemporary counterterrorism practice exposing how forms of state violence are normalised and legitimised The book investigates the historical development of preventive tools through the discursive imagery of vulnerability morality and extremism that characterise contemporary counterterrorism and counter violent extremism in Britain and Egypt In so doing the book argues that counterterror tools are based upon a colonial hierarchy of humanity that legitimises more violent treatment for racialised classed and gendered subjects This volume will appeal to scholars and students of critical terrorism studies socio legal studies and criminology It will also fit within sociology and critical theory courses on postcolonialism and gender studies as well as courses on colonialism feminist histories and critical legal history international politics international relations and Middle Eastern politics

Unsettling Colonial Modernity in Islamicate Contexts Kara Adbolmaleki,Roxana Akhbari,Siavash Saffari,2017-05-11 By focusing on colonial histories and legacies this edited volume breaks new ground in studying modernity in Islamicate contexts From a range of disciplinary perspectives the authors probe colonial modernity as a condition whose introduction into Islamicate contexts was facilitated historically by European encroachment into South Asia the Middle East and Northern Africa They also analyze the various modes through which in Europe itself and in North America by extension people from Islamicate contexts have been and continue to be otherized in the constitution and advancement of the project of modernity The book further brings to light a multiplicity of social political cultural and aesthetic modes of resistance aimed at subverting and unsettling colonial modernity in both Muslim majority and diasporic contexts

Neo-Colonial Injustice and the Mass Imprisonment of Indigenous Women Lily George,Adele N. Norris,Antje Deckert,Juan Tauri,2020-09-26 This book closes a gap in decolonizing intersectional and comparative research by addressing issues around the mass incarceration of Indigenous women in the US Australia Canada and Aotearoa New Zealand This edited collection seeks to add to the criminological discourse by increasing public awareness of the social problem of disproportionate incarceration rates It illuminates how settler colonial societies continue to deny many Indigenous peoples the life relatively free from state interference which most citizens enjoy The authors explore how White settler supremacy is exercised and preserved through neo colonial institutions policies and laws leading to failures in social and criminal justice reform and the impact of women s incarceration on their children partners families and communities It also explores the tools of activism and resistance that Indigenous peoples use to resist neo colonial marginalisation tactics to decolonise their lives and communities With most contributors embedded in their indigenous communities this collection is written from academic as well as community and experiential perspectives It will be a comprehensive resource for academics and students of criminology sociology Indigenous studies women and gender studies and related academic disciplines as well as non academic audiences offering new knowledge and insider insights both nationally and internationally

A Woman's Place Joana Cook (Ph. D.),2020 A much needed book on the role of women in US counterterrorism in the wider Middle East and at home

The Figure of Knowledge Sebastiaan Loosen,Rajesh Heynickx,Hilde Heynen,2020-10-01 It is a major challenge to write the history of post WWII architectural theory without boiling it down to a few defining paradigms An impressive

anthologising effort during the 1990s charted architectural theory mostly via the various theoretical frameworks employed such as critical theory critical regionalism deconstructivism and pragmatism Yet the intellectual contours of what constitutes architectural theory have been constantly in flux It is therefore paramount to ask what kind of knowledge has become important in the recent history of architectural theory and how the resulting figure of knowledge sets the conditions for the actual arguments made The contributions in this volume focus on institutional geographical rhetorical and other conditioning factors They thus screen the unspoken rules of engagement that postwar architectural theory ascribed to

The Cambridge Legal History of Australia Peter Cane, Lisa Ford, Mark McMillan, 2022-08-18 Featuring contributions from leading lawyers historians and social scientists this path breaking volume explores encounters of laws people and places in Australia since 1788 Its chapters address three major themes the development of Australian settler law in the shadow of the British Empire the interaction between settler law and First Nations people and the possibility of meaningful encounter between First laws and settler legal regimes in Australia Several chapters explore the limited space provided by Australian settler law for respectful encounters particularly in light of the High Court's particular concerns about the fragility of Australian sovereignty Tracing the development of a uniquely Australian law and the various contexts that shaped it this volume is concerned with the complexity plurality and ambiguity of Australia's legal history
