Kafkaesque Cinema Angelos Koutsourakis, 2024-05-31 For all its familiarity as a widely used term e Kafkaesque cinemae remains an often baffling concept that is poorly understood by film scholars Taking a cue from Jorge Luis Borges point that Kafka has modified our conception of past and future artists and Andre Bazin s suggestion that literary concepts and styles can exceed authors and e novels from which they emanatee this monograph proposes a comprehensive examination of Kafkaesque Cinema in order to understand it as part of a transnational cinematic tradition rooted in Kafka s critique of modernity which however extends beyond the Bohemian author s work and his historical experiences Drawing on a range of disciplines in the Humanities including film literary and theatre studies critical theory and history Kafkaesque Cinema will be the first full length study of the subject and will be a useful resource for scholars and students interested in film theory World Cinema World Literature and politics and representation

Exile and Otherness Alexander Stephan, 2005 In recent years Culture Studies Anthropology German Studies History Political Psychology and other fields have used the concept of exile in close connection with terms like migration border crossing identity and transnationality Views of a homogeneous culture and of centrality collide with ideas like multiculturalism pluralism creolization and the globalization of differences A transit culture inhabited by the flaneur and the nomad is supposed to have replaced citizenship in a nation At the same time there can be no doubt that the experience of those writers artists and intellectuals who were driven out of Germany and Europe by the Nazis was in many ways unique This book investigates the exile experience in a theoretical and comparative way by exploring the possibilities and limitations of concepts like diaspora de localization and transit culture for understanding the lives and works of German and Austrian refugees from Nazi persecution It revisits the interaction of the exiles with the culture of their host countries in light of recent debates about migration and identity studies and it analyzes texts paintings and other methods of artistic expression which connect the experience of the refugees of 1933 with postmodern notions of de localization hybridity and marginalization
