Arthur Green: Hasidism for Tomorrow Hava Tirosh-Samuelson, Aaron W. Hughes, 2016-07-11 Arthur Green is Rector of the post denominational Rabbinical School and Irving Brudnick Professor of Jewish Philosophy and Religion at Hebrew College in Newton Massachusetts Originally ordained as a Conservative rabbi Green considers himself a neo Hasidic Jew identifying with none of the established Jewish denominations He combines historical knowledge of the Jewish mystical tradition with an original constructive theology Recognized as both a rabbi and a scholar Green has sought to make spiritual pursuit an essential part of committed Jewish life Through scholarship educational work and popular teaching he has contributed to the growth and vitality of Judaism in America and helped promote neo Hasidism as Jewish spirituality for the 21st century Handbook of Language and Ethnic Identity Joshua Fishman, Ofelia Garcia, 2011-04-21 Like the first volume The Handbook of Language and Ethnic Identity Volume 2 is a reference work on the interconnection between language and ethnic identity In this volume 37 new essays provide a systematic look at different language and ethnic identity efforts assess their relative successes and failures and place the cases on a success failure continuum The reasons for these failures and successes and the linguistic social and political contexts involved are subtle and highly complex Some of these factors have to do with whether the language is considered a dialect as in the cases of Bavarian Ebonics and Scots considered to be dialects of German American English and British English respectively Other factors have to do with government policy as in the cases of Basque and Navajo Still other factors are historical such as the way Canaanite was supplanted in present day Israel by another classical language Hebrew Although the volume offers considerable sophistication in the treatment of language ethnicity and identity it has been written for the non specialized reader whether student or layperson The contributors are an international group of well known scholars in a range of fields Fishman and Garc a provide a detailed introduction that addresses the difficulty of assessing the success or failure of a language They also present a conclusion that integrates the data presented in the volume Ethical Considerations of Virtual Reality in the College Classroom Melody Bowdon, Kevin Yee, William Dorner, 2023-12-22 Ethical Considerations of Virtual Reality in the College Classroom collects case studies that address both pedagogical and ethical foundations of extended reality tools in postsecondary learning environments across disciplines With today s institutional programs and faculty leveraging cutting edge virtual augmented and mixed reality

opportunities to teach and promote achievement goals it is imperative that new research into these technologies speaks directly to their challenges and affordances within broad academic settings This book showcases real world examples of faculty members who chronicle and develop their use of VR tools across learning contexts and student populations by creating their own digital experiences adapting open source tools integrating commercial products amplifying crucial course content analyzing outcomes data and more Nontechnical readers will come away with a new understanding of key terms and concepts associated with virtual reality and essential heuristics for evaluating the ethical implications of immersive approaches

The Emergence of Pre-Cinema Alberto Gabriele, 2016-12-21 The book investigates the dispersed emergence of the new visual regime associated with nineteenth century pre cinematic spectacles in the literary imagination of the previous centuries Its comparative angle ranges from the Medieval and Baroque period to the visual and stylistic experimentations of the Romantic age in the prose of Anne Radcliffe the experiments of Friedrich Schlegel and in Wordsworth's Prelude The book examines the cultural traces of the transformation of perception and representation in art architecture literature and print culture providing an indispensable background to any discussion of nineteenth century culture at large and its striving for a figurative model of realism Understanding the origins of nineteenth century mimesis through an unacknowledged genealogy of visual practices helps also to redefine novel theory and points to the centrality of the new definition of historicism irradiating from Jena Romanticism for the structuring of modern cultural studies

Renewed Hasidism Elie Holzer, 2025-09-30 This groundbreaking volume bridges ancient wisdom and contemporary Jewish spirituality offering fresh insights into Hasidic homilies as dynamic sources of meaning and renewal Featuring nineteen scholars and educators the book delves into the mystical depth and poetic imagination of these texts revealing their power to inspire ethical and spiritual growth Through close readings and practical reflections the contributors explore innovative pedagogies for hermeneutical and existential transformation With a programmatic introduction by Elie Holzer this collection offers a rare look at the lived experience of teaching Hasidic homilies addressing classroom dilemmas and spiritual impact Essential for seekers and educators it opens new pathways to renewed Jewish spirituality and divine centered living
