A Reformation Reader Primary Texts With Introductions:

Reformation Reader Denis R. Janz, Although deeply political economic and social the European Reformations of the sixteenth century were at heart religious disputes over core Christian theological issues Denis Janz's A Reformation Reader is unabashed in its generous selection of key theological and related texts from five distinct Reformation sites Along with plenty on the late medieval background the Lutheran Calvinist Radical English and Catholic Reformations are all well represented here Janz's selection of more than 100 carefully edited primary documents captures the energy and moment of that tumultuous time The new edition incorporates a dozen readings by and about women in the Reformation adds a new chapter on Thomas Müntzer and the Peasants War and adds illuminating graphics A Reformation Reader Denis R.

Janz, 2023-05-09 A classroom staple for nearly 30 years this new third edition presents over 100 carefully selected primary documents edited for even greater concision to capture the energy and moment of that tumultuous time The saving of space results in a shorter book that now includes even more readings The Evangelical Counter-Enlightenment William R. Everdell, 2021-05-21 This contribution to the global history of ideas uses biographical profiles of 18th century contemporaries to find what Salafist and Sufi Islam Evangelical Protestant and Jansenist Catholic Christianity and Hasidic Judaism have in common Such figures include Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahab Count Nikolaus Zinzendorf Jonathan Edwards John Wesley Jean Jacques Rousseau and Israel Ba'al Shem Tov The book is a unique and comprehensive study of the conflicted relationship between the evangelical movements in all three Abrahamic religions and the ideas of the Enlightenment and Counter Enlightenment Centered on the 18th century the book reaches back to the third century for precedents and context and forward to the 21st for the legacy of these movements This text appeals to students and researchers in many fields including Philosophy and Religion their histories and World History while also appealing to the interested lay reader Genesis

Miguel A. De La Torre, 2011-01-01 This volume in the Belief series provides a new and interesting theological interpretation of Genesis through the themes of liberation and the concerns of the poor and marginalized De La Torre wrestles with Genesis texts remembering Jacob's wrestling at Peniel Gen 32 24-32 and finds that there are consequences when we truly wrestle with the biblical text struggling to see the face of God This commentary provides theological and ethical insights that enables the book of Genesis to speak powerfully today Calvinism's First Battleground Michael W. Bruening, 2006-01-27 This book sheds new light on the origin of Calvinism and the Reformed faith through a detailed history of its progress in the Pays de Vaud A careful examination of twin conflicts the forced conversion of a Catholic populace to Protestantism by the Bernese and the struggle of Calvinists against the Zwinglian political and theological ideas that dominated the Swiss Confederation helps show why the Reformation bloomed where and when it did Building Peace and Civil Society Paul Peachey, 2007

Repentance and the Mission of the Church W. Ryan Vanderland, 2023-05-03 What does it mean when we call men and women to repent What if repentance is more than just turning from individual sin What if repentance is more than merely a step in the process of conversion What if repentance is actually part of God s mission in the world In this book W

Ryan Vanderland argues for this very understanding of repentance Building on the work of other scholars of repentance and engaging with Old Testament and New Testament texts this book shows how repentance is indeed part of God s mission in the world part of the mission of the church in the world and therefore part of the mission of God s people Finally this work takes this missional understanding of repentance and applies it to issues facing the contemporary church Michelangelo in the New Millennium Tamara Smithers,2016-03-11 Michelangelo in the New Millennium presents six paired studies in dialogue with each other that offer new ways of looking at Michelangelo s art as a series of social creative and emotional exchanges where artistic intention remains flexible probe deeper into the artist s formal borrowing and how it affects meaning regarding his early religious works and consider the making and significance of his late papal painting projects commissioned by Paul III and Paul IV for chapels at the Vatican Palace Contributors are William E Wallace Joost Keizer Eric R Hupe Emily Fenichel Jonathan Kline Erin Sutherland Minter Margaret Kuntz Tamara Smithers and Marcia B Hall convincing subjectivity in spite of the constraints they encountered While the authors acknowledge contradiction and ambiguity they consistently strive to compromise and achieve balance Drawing on social and cultural history feminist theory psychoanalysis and the study of discourses the close reading of the women s texts and other literary and non literary sources reveals that the female writers seek to reconcile the affective corporeal social economic and ideological dimensions of their identities and thereby question both the modern idea of the unified self and its postmodern fragmented variant The women s identities as writers mothers spouses household members and economic agents testify to their acceptance of contradictions their adherence to patriarchal norms and simultaneous self assertion Their pragmatic stances suggest that their simultaneous confidence and anxiety should be taken seriously as tentative precarious yet ultimately workable and convincing expressions of identity
