

RAJNI BAKSHI

bazaars, conversations & freedom for a market culture beyond greed and fear

'The market economy can be vigorous and productive, but also amazingly stupid and degenerate. The world is now much engaged in working out how mindless markets can be made to function better with the help of other institutions. In this striking book, Rajni Bakshi insightfully explores how the working of markets can be improved through a modern version of the combination of trade and conversation that characterizes the age-old bazaars.'

marketers look for more ways to get personal with customers including new tricks with big data customers are about to get personal in their own ways with their own tools Soon consumers will be able to Control the flow and use of personal data Build their own loyalty programs Dictate their own terms of service Tell whole markets what they want how they want it where and when they should be able to get it and how much it should cost And they will do all of this outside of any one vendor s silo This new landscape we re entering is what Doc Searls calls The Intention Economy one in which demand will drive supply far more directly efficiently and compellingly than ever before In this book he describes an economy driven by consumer intent where vendors must respond to the actual intentions of customers instead of vying for the attention of many New customer tools will provide the engine with VRM Vendor Relationship Management providing the consumer counterpart to vendors CRM Customer Relationship Management systems For example imagine being able to change your address once for every company you deal with or combining services from multiple companies in real time in your own ways all while keeping an auditable accounting of every one of your interactions in the marketplace These tantalizing possibilities and many others are introduced in this book As customers become more independent and powerful and the Intention Economy emerges only vendors and organizations that are ready for the change will survive and thrive Where do you stand Futuring Design Education, Volume 2 Aneesha Sharma,Ravi Poovaiah,2025-02-10 This book presents select proceedings of the two day conference titled Futuring Design Education FDE 2024 and it examines the transformation of design knowledge the evolving spaces of learning and the ecosystems of teaching and learning The topics covered include the pedagogical model of design education the experiments and technological advances that impact design education The book also discusses the roles and challenges of learning spaces remote learning in digital spaces and synchronous and asynchronous learning tools The book will also look at the social contexts in design pedagogy cultural affiliations and alignments and will allude to any new learning frameworks for design education The book can be a valuable reference for design educators design researchers and professionals interested in design education Cultural Rights and Justice John Clammer,2018-12-11 This book provides an innovative contribution to the emerging field of culture and development through the lens of cultural rights arguing in favour of a fruitful dialogue between human rights development studies critical cultural studies and concerns about the protection and preservation of cultural diversity It breaks with established approaches by introducing the themes of aesthetics embodiment narrative and peace studies into the field of culture and development and in doing so proposes both an expanded conception of cultural rights and a holistic vision of development that not only includes these elements in a central way but which argues that genuine sustainability must include the cultural dimension including the notion of cultural justice as recognition protection and respect extended to the many expressions of human imagination in this world ICIE 2015 3rd International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Deresh Ramjugernath,2015-02-24 These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 3rd International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship ICIE

2015 which is being co hosted by The University of KwaZulu Natal Durban and the Ethekwini Municipality Durban South Africa on the 19 20 March 2015 The ICIE Conference constitutes a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of innovation and entrepreneurship in business and management At the same time it provides an important opportunity for researchers and managers to come together with peers share knowledge and exchange ideas ICIE builds on the now well established European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship and allows universities outside the European Boundaries the opportunity to host an academic conference on these important topics In addition to the presentations of research the conference will feature a knowledge cafe led by Dr Shawren Singh looking at this topic How can academics focus research efforts to better serve the business and public sector communities The second day will open with a panel discussion looking at Smart cities Opportunities for Entrepreneurship and Economic growth Following an initial submission of 85 abstracts that have undergone a double blind peer review process 26 research papers 3 PhD research papers 2 work in progress papers are published in these Conference Proceedings representing research results from the Czech Republic Denmark Italy Kazakhstan Kenya Lithuania Nigeria Poland Saudi Arabia South Africa Sweden The Netherlands UK USA and Zambia

Cultures of Transition and Sustainability John Clammer, 2016-06-10 Contending that culture lies at the root of our current planetary and civilizational crisis this book uniquely explores the nature of the specifically cultural dimensions of that crisis and how culture relates to the areas of politics policy economics ecology and the whole discourse of sustainability It debates how profoundly our world is shaped by capitalist culture emphasizing the import of political culture and policy social justice leadership and community in the shaping of a new cultural sustainability It also reintroduces questions of religion art citizenship and comparative culture into the sustainability debate and suggests ways in which the central issue of consumer culture can be rethought and others in which socially satisfactory transitions to a sustainable future might be achieved Addressing the specific role of culture in our crisis and of how to build cultural resources for transition this cutting edge text provides the reader with an introduction to the literature on culture and sustainability and both practical and theoretical tools for creating and advancing a humane and ecologically responsible future

Be the Change Jeroninio Almeida & Jyoti Nanda, 2019-12-17 Inspiring stories of real heroes Be the Change is a decadelong journey of discovering soulstirring narratives that celebrate the triumph of the human spirit The compelling stories in this book are of ordinary citizens who have unleashed the spirit within with extraordinary consequences radically changing society for the better The list includes globally eminent names like Meera Sanyal Michael Norton Arun Maira Bill Drayton and Kumi Naidoo as well as unsung heroes like Lakshman Singh Thangsingh Chinkholal and many others Irrespective of their field these are people who have reached out beyond their own life to help others to be and to lead the change Their stories will inspire all of us to recognize our own power to be a champion of change reinforce the positive in society and leave an imprint on the sands of time

JERONINIO JERRY ALMEIDA is one of the world's most innovative fundraisers and missionary entrepreneurs. He is a celebrated inspirational speaker, teacher, executive coach, and management consultant. JYOTI NANDA is a teacher, special educator, author, editor, and certified Life Coach. These stories have that power to inspire people to rise and act to make a difference. NELSON MANDELA: Insights from thousands of people and villages. AMARTYA SEN: Nobel Laureate Economist and Author. Vision and Society John Clammer, 2014-03-26. The sociology of art is now an established sub-discipline of sociology. But little work has been done to explore the implications not of society on art but of art on the nature and principles of sociology itself. Vision and Society explores the ways in which art here mainly understood as visual art structures in fundamental ways the constitution of society, the relations between societies and the ways in which society and culture should be theorized. Building initially on an unfulfilled project by the French sociologist of art Nathalie Heinich to derive a sociology from art, this book pushes this idea in unconventional directions. Rethinking the relationships between the study of art and the study of sociology and anthropology, this book explores how this rethinking might impact sociological theory in general and certain aspects of it in particular, especially the study of social movements, social change, the urban, the constitution of space and the ways in which human social relationships are mediated and expressed. Developing Minds Elise Klein, 2016-10-04. Development policy makers and practitioners are becoming increasingly sophisticated in their ability to target development interventions and the psychological domain is now a specific frontier of their interventional focus. This landmark study considers the problematic relationship between development and psychology, tracing the deployment of psychological knowledge in the production/reproduction of power relations within the context of neoliberal development policy and intervention. It examines knowledge production and implementation by actors of development policy such as the World Bank and the neo-colonial state and ends by examining the proposition of a critical psychology for more emancipatory forms of development. The role of psychology in development studies remains a relatively unexplored area with limited scholarship available. This important book aims to fill that gap by using critical psychology perspectives to explore the focus of the psychological domain of agency in development interventions. It will be essential reading for students, researchers, and policy makers from fields including critical psychology, social psychology, development studies, and anthropology. Sūtras, Stories and Yoga Philosophy Daniel Raveh, 2016-07-01. This book presents a close reading of four Indian narratives from different time periods: epic, Upaniadic, pre-modern, and contemporary. Ekalavya's story from the Mahabharata, MBh 1.123.1-39, the story of Prajapati Indra and Virochana from the Chandogya Upanishad, CU 8.7.1-8.12.5, the story of Ananka in the King's body from the Ankaradigvijaya, and A. R. Murugadoss's Hindi film Ghajini (2008) respectively. These stories are thematically juxtaposed with Patajali's yoga, namely Patajali's Yogasutra and its vast commentarial body. The sutras reveal hidden philosophical layers. The stories, on the other hand, contribute to the clarification of philosophical junctions in the Yogasutra. Through sutras and stories, the author explores the question of self-identity with emphasis on the role of memory and the place of body in identity formation Each of the stories diagnoses the connection between self identity and at least a sense of freedom Employing cutting edge methodology crossing the boundaries of literary theory story telling and philosophical reflection this book presents fresh interpretations of Indian thought It is useful to specialists in Asian philosophy and culture

The Good Life Beyond Growth Hartmut Rosa, Christoph Henning, 2017-08-15 Many countries have experienced a decline of economic growth for decades an effect that was only aggravated by the recent global financial crisis What if in the 21st century this is no longer an exception but the general rule Does an economy without growth necessarily bring hardship and crises as is often assumed Or could it be a chance for a better life Authors have long argued that money added to an income that already secures basic needs no longer enhances well being Also ecological constraints and a sinking global absorption capacity increasingly reduce the margin of profitability on investments Efforts to restore growth politically however often lead to reduced levels of social protection reduced ecological and health standards unfair tax burdens and rising inequalities Thus it is time to dissolve the link between economic growth and the good life This book argues that a good life beyond growth is not only possible but highly desirable It conceptualizes the good life as a fulfilled life that is embedded in social relations and at peace with nature independent of a mounting availability of resources In bringing together experts from different fields this book opens an interdisciplinary discussion that has often been restricted to separate disciplines

Philosophers sociologists economists and activists come together to discuss the political and social conditions of a good life in societies which no longer rely on economic growth and no longer call for an ever expanding circle of extraction consumption pollution waste conflict and psychological burnout Read together these essays will have a major impact on the debates about economic growth economic and ecological justice and the good life in times of crisis Entrepreneurship Sílvia Manuel Brito, 2018-04-04

Entrepreneurship is a powerful attitude that in such a way in the last few years has become a discipline increasingly transversal to different areas of knowledge Many times we think about the things we want such as a good house a brand new car a beautiful relationship a good friendship and a good way to be in the world Is that possible that you convert into an entrepreneur This book shows some examples of that possibility from simple people to a big organization In all cases if you become an entrepreneur it will be for your taste and pleasure a means to survive and enjoy the uncertainty and rejoice that you have all these in your hands and will Can you find out the trends and overcome the challenges We would say yes It all depends on whether you want to develop and apply this attitude Churning the Earth Aseem Shrivastava, 2012-05-24

The world stands so dazzled by India's meteoric economic rise that we hesitate to acknowledge its consequences to the people and the environment In Churning the Earth Aseem Shrivastava and Ashish Kothari engage in a timely enquiry of this impressive growth story They present incontrovertible evidence on how the nature of this recent growth has been predatory and question its sustainability Unfettered development has damaged the ecological basis that makes life possible for hundreds of millions resulting in conflicts over water land and natural resources and increasing the chasm between the rich and the poor threatening the future of India as a civilization Rich with data and stories this eye opening critique of India s development strategy argues for a radical ecological democracy based on the principles of environmental sustainability social equity and livelihood security Shrivastava and Kothari urge a fundamental shift towards such alternatives already emerging from a range of grassroots movements if we are to forestall the descent into socio ecological chaos Churning the Earth is unique in presenting not only what is going wrong in India but also the ways out of the crises that globalised growth has precipitated Climate Terror Sanjay Chaturvedi,2016-01-12 Climate Terror engages with a highly differentiated geographical politics of global warming It explores how fear inducing climate change discourses could result in new forms of dependencies domination and militarised climate security Business India ,2010 □□□□□□□□□□ Doc Searls,2013-06-20 VRM CRM VRM
