The Woman's Story Laura Carter Holloway, 1888 The One-Sex Body on Trial: The Classical and Early Modern Evidence Helen King, 2016-02-17 By far the most influential work on the history of the body across a wide range of academic disciplines remains that of Thomas Laqueur This book puts on trial the one sex two sex model of Laqueur's Making

Sex Body and Gender from the Greeks to Freud through a detailed exploration of the ways in which two classical stories of sexual difference were told retold and remade from the mid sixteenth to the nineteenth century Agnodike the first midwife who disguises herself as a man and then exposes herself to her potential patients and Phaethousa who grows a beard after her husband leaves her are stories from the ancient world that resonated in the early modern period in particular Tracing the reception of these tales shows how they provided continuity despite considerable change in medicine being the common property of those on different sides of professional disputes about women's roles in both medicine and midwifery The study reveals how different genres used these stories changing their characters and plots but always invoking the authority of the classics in discussions of sexual identity The study raises important questions about the nature of medical knowledge the relationship between texts and observation and the understanding of sexual difference in the early modern world beyond the one sex model

Bikini Story Patrik Alac,2012-05-08 It was in 1946 that the world first came to hear of a coral atoll in the Marshall Islands called Bikini The following year French couturier Louis Rard borrowed the name and applied it to a bathing costume for women Breaking from decades of conformity Rard dared to undress women's bodies in order to better emphasize what remained clothed albeit in tiny wisps of material By taking up the bikini as popular beachwear women also found themselves thinking differently about their bodies An ideal of perfection was reinforced by the appearance on the cinema screen of stars such as Marilyn Monroe Brigitte Bardot and Ursula Andress all of whom were featured in bikinis that accentuated their own curvaceous contours More than a bathing costume the bikini made its own contribution during the 1970s to the sexual revolution and to the changing relationship between men and women in general This book investigates the history of the bikini and its effect on the evolution in the perception of women in society as women regained responsibility for the way they look and laid claim once more to full sexual equality A collection of images throughout this book illustrates this progression step by step over a period of more than 50 years

Fetish in Early Modern England Mark Albert Johnston,2016-04-15 Focusing on representations of beards in English Renaissance culture this study elucidates how fetish objects validate ideological systems of power by materializing complex value in multiple registers Providing detailed discussions of not only bearded men but also beardless boys bearded women and half bearded hermaphrodites author Mark Albert Johnston argues that attending closely to early modern English culture s treatment of the beard as a fetish object ultimately exposes the contingency of categories like sex gender age race and sexuality Johnston mines a diverse cross section of contemporary discourses adult and children s drama narrative verse and prose popular ballads epigrams and proverbs historical accounts pamphlet literature diaries letters wills court records and legal documents medical and surgical manuals lectures sermons almanacs and calendars in order to provide proof for his cultural claims Johnston s evidence invokes some of the period s most famous voices William Shakespeare Ben Jonson John Lyly Phillip Stubbes John Marston George Chapman Thomas Dekker Thomas Middleton and Samuel Pepys for example but Johnston also introduces us to an array of lesser known Renaissance authors and playwrights whose works support the notion that the beard was a palimpsestic site of contested meaning at which complex and contradictory values clash and converge Johnston s reading of Marxist Freudian and anthropological theories of the fetish phenomenon acknowledges their divergent emphases erotic economic racial and religious while suggesting that the imbrication of diverse registers that fetish accomplishes facilitates its cultural and psychic naturalizing function Neverending Stories Ann Fehn,Ingeborg Hoesterey,Maria M. Tatar,2014-07-14 In these compelling new essays leading critics sharpen our understanding of the narrative structures that convey meaning in fiction taking as their point of departure the narratological positions of Dorrit Cohn Grard Genette and Franz Stanzel This collection demonstrates how narratology with its attention to the modalities of presenting consciousness offers a point of entry for scholars investigating the socio cultural dimensions of literary representations Drawing from a wide range of literary texts the essays explore the borderline between fiction and history explain how characters are constructed by both author and reader through the narration of consciousness show how gender shapes narrative strategies ranging from the depiction of consciousness through intertextuality to the representation of the body address issues of contingency in narrative and present a debate on the crucial function of person in the literary text The

The True Story of the Chevalier D'Eon Ernest Alfred Vizetelly, 1895

Distorted Bodies and Suffering Souls. Chantal Kwast-Greff, 2013

Chaos Pain Self mutilation Women starve themselves They burn or slash their own flesh or their babies throats and slam their newborns against walls Their bodies are the canvases on which the suffering of the soul carves itself with knife and razor In Australian fiction written by women between 1984 and 1994 female characters inscribe their inner chaos on their bodies to exert whatever power they have over themselves Their self inflicted pain is both reaction and language the bodily sign not only of their enfeeblement but also to a certain extent of their empowerment of themselves and their world The texts considered in this book chiefly by Margaret Coombs Kate Grenville Fiona Place Penelope Rowe Leone Sperling and Amy Witting function as both defiance and acceptance of prevailing discourses of femininity and patriarchy between submission and a possible future The narratives of anorexia bulimia fatness self mutilation incest and murder shock the reader into an understanding of deeper meanings of body and soul and prompt a tentative interpretation of fiction in relation to the world of real women and men in contemporary white Australia This is affective literature with the reader in voyeuristic complicity Holding up the mirror of fiction the women writers act perforce as a social lever their narratives as Bildungsromane But there is a risk that of reinforcing stereotypes and codes of conduct which supposedly long gone still represent women as victims Why are the female characters self destroyers and victims Why are they not heroes saviours or conquerors If women read about women themselves and feel pity for the Other they read about they will also feel pity for themselves there is little happiness in being a woman But infanticide and distorting the body are problem solving behaviours In truth the bodies of the female characters bear the marks and scars of the history of their mothers and the history of their grandmothers indeed that of their own the history of survivors
