The Beatitudes Christopher J. Mertens, 1901 Mankind is created in the image and likeness of God for the purpose of sharing in the Divine Life and participating in the blessedness of the infinite glory and goodness of the Holy Trinity This Beatific Vision is not seeing God in His essence but rather seeing God by possessing Him within oneself Communion with God is attained through the cooperation of the divine and human will whereby the follower of Jesus Christ puts on Christ through the sacraments of the Church and imitates the life of Christ through the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit to the glory of God the Father Amen Jesus describes in the opening words of His Sermon on the Mount all that produces beatitude The very intent of the Beatitudes is to issue the Father's divine call for man to enter in the blessedness of the Divine Life Therefore the Beatitudes illuminate the pathway to theosis deification or divinization which is a journey of eternal progress in the virtuous life by which a perpetual transformation is made into the likeness of God from glory to glory The Scriptures and the patristic writings of the Church Fathers provide the theological foundation of this book the objective of which is to provide a guide for the soul to consciously advance in the spiritual life toward the divine goal of theosis in a step by step concrete way Dr Christopher J Mertens is a deacon in the Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America He serves at the parish of Saint Basil the Great in Hampton Virginia He received a master's degree in Applied Orthodox Theology from the Antiochian House of Studies in partnership with the Saint John of Damascus School of Theology of the University of Balamand in the Republic of Lebanon under the aegis of the Greek Orthodox Patriarchate of Antioch He is a Knight of the Order of St Ignatius of Antioch He holds a PhD in Physics from the Georgia Institute of Technology and is a Senior Research Physicist at NASA Langley Research Center in Hampton Virginia His areas of research are space weather and geospace environment modeling galactic and solar cosmic rays space and atmospheric ionizing radiation and dosimetry He has published over 100 peer reviewed journal articles on his scientific research He is a recipient of the NASA Exceptional Scientific Achievement Medal and numerous other professional awards Father Deacon Christopher and his wife Rhonda reside in Toano Virginia They have two adult daughters and two grandchildren Publishers Maxim Hodak Max Mendor

The Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes Yiu Sing Lúcas Chan, 2012-09-14 The Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes are often considered significant texts for the Christian moral life. However, most interpretations of these passages either focus on the original meaning of the text or how the texts should impact ordinary living today. In The Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes, Yiu Sing L. C. Chan brings together biblical studies and Christian ethics to look at these foundational texts in a new way. For each passage, Chan asks both what the texts meant and what they mean today. He helps readers to carefully study the text's original meaning, then interpret the text within a sound ethical framework. The Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes is an excellent introduction to key concepts in biblical studies and Christian ethics that combines sound study with warmth and wisdom.

The Decalogue in the Sermon on the Mount Dan Lioy, 2004. In this work, Dan Lioy first investigates the biblical concept of the law. He then conducts a thoroughgoing analysis of the Decalogue and the Sermon on the Mount. He gives particular attention to the connection between these two great bodies of biblical literature. The result is a comprehensive study that argues for the enduring relevance of the moral law. This volume is appropriate for personal study and is also suitable as a college and seminary text.

Matthew: The Christbook, Matthew 1-12 Frederick Dale Bruner, 2004. Recognized as a masterly commentary when it first appeared, Frederick Dale Bruner's study of Matthew is now available as a greatly revised and expanded two-volume work, the result of seven years of careful refinement, enrichment, and updating. Through this commentary, crafted especially for teachers, pastors, and Bible students, Bruner aims to help God's people love what Matthew's Gospel says. Bruner's work is at once broadly historical and deeply theological. It is historical in drawing extensively on great church teachers through the centuries and on the classical Christian creeds and confessions. It is theological in that it unpacks the doctrines in each passage, chapter, and section of the Gospel. Consciously attempting to bridge past and present, Bruner asks both what Matthew's Gospel said to its first hearers and what it says to readers today. As a result, his commentary is profoundly relevant to contemporary congregations and to those who guide them. Bruner's commentary is replete with lively verse-by-verse discussion of Matthew's text. While each chapter expounds a specific topic or doctrine, the book's format consists of a vivid original translation of the text followed by faithful exegesis and critical analysis, a survey of historical commentary on the text, and current applications of the text or theme under study. In this revision, Bruner continues to draw on the best in modern scholarship, including recent work by W. D. Davies and Dale C. Allison Jr. by Ulrich Luz and by many others, adding new voices to the reading of Matthew. At the same time, he cites the classic commentaries of Chrysostom, Jerome, Augustine, Luther, Calvin, Bengel, and the rest, who like Bruner himself were not simply doctrinal teachers but also careful exegetes of Scripture. Such breadth and depth of learning assure that Bruner's Matthew will remain as a reviewer for Interpretation wrote, "the most dog-eared commentary on the shelf." Volume 1 of Bruner's commentary is called The Christbook because the first twelve chapters of Matthew are focused on the nature and work of Christ. As Bruner proceeds through these chapters, he shows how Matthew presents step-by-step central themes of Christology: Jesus' coming (chapters 1-4), his teaching (5-7), his miracles (8-9), his sermon on mission (10), and his person (11-12).

Throughout the book there are also thoughtful discussions of significant topics such as baptism marriage Jewish Christian relations and heaven and hell Eminently readable rich in biblical insight and ecumenical in tone Bruner's two volume commentary on Matthew now stands among the best in the field

Happiness Randy Alcorn, 2024-06 Christians are supposed to be happy In fact we are supposed to radiate joy peace and contentment that is so unmistakable and so attractive that others are naturally drawn to us because they want what we have And yet in today's culture the vast majority of Christians are perceived as angry judgmental people who don't seem to derive any joy from life whatsoever So why aren't we happy Unfortunately many Christians are taught early on that God doesn't want us to be happy he wants us to be holy In fact many Christians are laboring under the false notion that God himself is not happy But nothing could be further from the truth God does want us to be happy The Bible is filled with verses that prove that ours is a happy joy filled God who not only loves celebrations but also desperately wants his children to be happy Why else would He go to the lengths He did to ensure our eternal happiness in His presence We know that we will experience unimaginable joy and happiness in Heaven but that doesn't mean we can't also experience joy and happiness here on earth In Happiness noted theologian Randy Alcorn dispels centuries of misconceptions about happiness and provides indisputable proof that God not only wants us to be happy He commands it The most definitive study on the subject of happiness to date this book is a paradigm shifting wake up call for the church and Christians everywhere
