Amaechi Ejiribe,Sodzi

Sodzi-Tettey,Joseph Ofori-Dankwa,2025-08-19 This book analyzes the significant obstacles facing women traders in marketplaces in Ghana and proposes policy recommendations that would enhance economic development The editors first characterize these challenges as jolts and develop a comprehensive typology of jolts that the market women face They then provide a detailed analysis of the social justice implications associated with the jolts Next subject area experts thoroughly depict the different types of jolts that market women face and highlight current policies and strategies used by national and local government authorities to deal with these jolts Finally the editors highlight recommended policies and strategies that can be used to successfully address the effects of the various jolts encountered by market women Women traders operating in the Ghanaian marketplace unquestionably play a significant role in the development of the national economy This book therefore aims to raise awareness of these jolts identify several recommendations to mitigate them and by so doing help address social injustices and aid in national development The Future of Entrepreneurship in Africa Robert

Hinson,Doreen Nyarko Anyamesem Odame,Kojo Kakra Twum,Patience Rambe,Paul Agu Igwe,David Gamariel Rugara,2023-08-22 This book focuses on entrepreneurial development and the development of small businesses in Africa The central idea of this book is that entrepreneurial development and small business development are connected Entrepreneurship is lauded as an engine of growth economic development and job creation with small businesses often contributing to new job creation Also entrepreneurship and small business development are the heart of many countries economies The decision to focus on entrepreneurial development and small business development is that first there is a consensus that most entrepreneurial activities are aimed at creating small new ventures Second countries that give special attention to entrepreneurship stand a chance of industrialization Third Africa has been reported as having a rich entrepreneurial landscape as the continent's wealthiest individuals generated their wealth as trailblazing entrepreneurs Fourth small scale entrepreneurs and businesses form the backbone of economic activities across the continent A motivation to focus on entrepreneurial and small business development is the generally accepted view that start ups in Africa are growing calling for understanding into how to enhance productivity efficiencies and application of new technologies The book aims to enhance the understanding of stakeholders business owners governments practitioners to overturn challenges such as inadequate start up capital competition lack of employees with the right skills and low use of technology The ability to develop entrepreneurship in Africa and the role of small medium enterprises cannot be underestimated The promotion of entrepreneurship in Africa is crucial as it creates jobs provides decent livelihoods and contributes to GDP Most entrepreneurial initiatives in developing economies entail identifying opportunities and new venture creation It is worth recognizing that most new ventures created take the form of small businesses and the entrepreneurial processes involve entrepreneurs knowledge and skills identifying opportunities involvement in setting up a business and managing the business The various aspects of this book focus on many entrepreneurial activities that are undertaken on the African continent This book is focused on African countries since there is a reason to be optimistic about the prospects for growth and entrepreneurship To achieve entrepreneurial success in African countries the African Development Bank 2021 proposes that there must be a link between macro and firm level characteristics that will serve as the mix of entrepreneurship in societies This book therefore considers some macro level factors such as education training and skills development technological developments government programs and entrepreneurial challenges and opportunities At the firm level this book focuses on entrepreneurial initiatives such as branding and marketing

Understanding the Traditional Art of Ghana E. V. Asihene,1978 A study of the fine arts and handicrafts of a small republic in western Africa is important for its valuable information about the traditional art and the renewed interest in its preservation and continuation by native artists today Power, Gender and Social Change in Africa Raj Bardouille,Margaret Grieco,2009-03-26 Gender plays a hugely significant and too often under considered role in predicting how accessible resources such as education wage based employment physical and mental health care adequate nutrition and housing will be to an individual or community According to a 2001 World Bank report titled Engendering Development Through Gender Equality in Rights Resources and Voice enormous disparities exist between men and women in terms of basic rights and the power to determine the future both in Africa and around the globe A better understanding of the links between gender public policy and development outcomes would allow for more effective policy formulation and implementation at many levels This book through its discussion of the challenges achievements and lessons learned in efforts to attain gender equality sheds light on these important issues The book contains chapters from an interdisciplinary group of scholars including sociologists economists political scientists scholars of law anthropologists historians and others The work includes analysis of strategic gender initiatives case studies research and policies as well as conceptual and theoretical pieces With its format of ideas resources and recorded experiences as well as theoretical models and best practices the book is an important contribution to academic and political discourse on the intricate links between gender power and social change in Africa and around the world
