Images of Traumatic Memories Anja Meyer,2020-12-14 By employing the lens of the most recent critical studies on intermediality the author analyses the interaction between literature and photography in three contemporary hybrid novels Miss Peregrine s Home for Peculiar Children by Ransom Riggs 2011 Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close by Jonathan Safran Foer 2005 and The Dark Room by Rachel Seiffert 2001 sharing the narration of traumatic historical events The intermedial dimension realised by the confluence of the two media devices offers new ways to create meaning and to reflect upon the nature of collective and individual trauma by re enacting the distortion and the inaccessibility to the memories of those experiences In this context the reader emerges as an active participant in the process of fiction making as the act of reading becomes a renewed act of witnessing

Monstrous Beauty: A Feminist Revision of Chinoiserie Iris Moon,2025-03-24 Monstrous Beauty presents a bold cross cultural history of porcelain told through a feminist lens Prized for its delicate quality and whiteness porcelain was first imported to Europe from China in the early modern period and gained lasting associations with Chinoiserie a style that encapsulated associations of mystery and enchantment with Asia This book probes the collective anxieties around gender race and sexuality lurking under the surface of this ornate style derided by some eighteenth century critics as monstrous and unnatural In interconnected essays Iris Moon unpacks Chinoiserie s language of curiosity and exoticism Here close looking at garnitures plates tea cups and saucers reveals how the desire to collect and possess porcelain created entrenched cultural myths of the Asian woman and how it later extended into such mediums as photography and film In addition sixteen readings by contemporary artists and scholars of works ranging from the sixteenth century to the present respond to this fraught history by asking how we can engage in meaningful dialogues about Chinoiserie today
