Consuming Books Stephen Brown, 2006-04-18 The buying selling and writing of books is a colossal industry in which marketing looms large yet there are very few books which deal with book marketing how to texts excepted and fewer still on book consumption This innovative text not only rectifies this but also argues that far from being detached the book business in fact epitomises today's Entertainment Economy fast moving hit driven intense competition rapid technological change etc

Written by an impressive roster of renowned marketing authorities many with experience of the book trade and all gifted writers in their own right Consuming Books steps back from the practicalities of book marketing and takes a look at the industry from a broader consumer research perspective Consisting of sixteen chapters divided into four loose sections this key text covers a historical overview the often acrimonious marketing literature interface the consumers of books from book groups to bookcrossing a consideration of the tensions that both literary types and marketers feel With something for everyone Consuming Books not only complements the how to genre but provides the depth that previous studies of book consumption conspicuously lack      Charm Offensive Kelly Ricciardi Colvin,2023-03-30 In the aftermath of the Second World War the French government cultivated images of sensual and sophisticated white French women in an attempt to reestablish its global image as a great nation They promoted the beauty sexual appeal and general allure of French women all while shrinking the boundaries of what was considered beautiful Charm Offensive explores how this elevation of French femininity created problems on both sides of the equation the pressure on French women to conform to an exacting physical standard was immense while the inability of anyone else to access that standard resulted in a sense of failure Drawing on cultural figures like Air France hostesses tourism workers and celebrities such as Brigitte Bardot Charm Offensive offers an innovative understanding of a tumultuous time of decolonization      Engaging the Word Jaime Clark-Soles,2010-11-17 Most Christians are unaware of the doctrinal debates taking place within the religious academic community When they are aware of these discussions they may consider them irrelevant or even harmful to Christian practice Jaime Clark Soles invites seminarians seminary faculty and church leaders to find common ground by considering the various debates the reasons they persist the implications of each and how they pertain to Christian identity and faith within the larger contemporary culture Includes study questions      The Bible and Feminism Yvonne Sherwood,Anna Fisk,2017 This collection provides readers with a concise high level introduction to the field of feminist and gender biblical criticism It consists of 36 chapters which tackle a wide range of new theoretical and methodological movements      Why Can't We Just Get Along? Shelley Hendrix,2013 Every woman suffers from relationships that seem broken and past the point of salvaging Why Can t We Just Get Along provides a warm friendly and candid resource for women to look honestly at relationship issues and take control of their own lives regardless of the choices others make Author and speaker Shelley Hendrix unpacks six biblical principles that will enable readers to be at peace with everyone With practical easy to understand tools Shelley helps women find peace in their lives and friendships discover new motivation to restore and repair hurting relationships create closer connections by accepting and appreciating differences in others become empowered to serve each other in love Complete with discussion questions real life illustrations teaching from Scripture and expert advice from psychologists and therapists Why Can t We All Just Get Along is an invaluable resource for women everywhere showing them how to find peace in places they never thought they could      The Politics of Professionalism Juris Dilevko,2009 An alternative proposal for the education of librarians
