Carbon Aldona Kobus, Łukasz Muniowski, 2020-01-31 The 2018 Netflix series Altered Carbon is a vital contribution to the cyberpunk renaissance among such titles as Snowpiercer or Blade Runner 2049 This collection of new essays answers the question is this increasing popularity of cyberpunk a sign of recognition of the genre's transgressive aspects such as a stark critique of capitalism or is it the opposite a sign of the genre's failure to successfully criticize modernity The contributors consider the series as taking on current issues from a critique of neoliberalism through the ethical aspects of biotechnology up to thanatology They provoke questions about what it means to be human in a world in which death does not exist Essays evaluate the surging popularity of the series and cyberpunk at large from a variety of critical perspectives shedding new light on a challenging and inventive series The Bell Tolls for No One Charles Bukowski, 2015 From the self illustrated unpublished work written in 1947 to hardboiled contributions to 1980s adult magazines The Bells Tolls for No One presents the entire range of Bukowski's talent as a short story writer from straight up genre stories to postmodern blurring of fact and fiction. An informative introduction by editor David Stephen Calonne provides historical context for these seemingly scandalous and chaotic tales revealing the hidden hand of the master at the top of his form. The uncollected gutbucket ramblings of the grand dirty old man of Los Angeles letters have been gathered in this characteristically filthy funny compilation. Bukowski's gift was a sense for the raunchy absurdity of life, his writing a grumble that might turn into a belly laugh or a racking cough but that always throbbed with vital energy.

Kirkus Reviews: Born in Andernach, Germany and raised in Los Angeles, Charles Bukowski published his first story when he was twenty-four and began writing poetry at the age of thirty-five. His first book of poetry was published in 1959; he would eventually publish more than forty-five books of poetry and prose. He died of leukemia in San Pedro, California, on March 9, 1994. David Stephen Calonne is the author of several books and has edited three previous collections of the uncollected work of Charles Bukowski for City Lights, Absence of the Hero, Portions from a Wine Stained Notebook, and More Notes of a Dirty Old Man. Michigan Christian Advocate, 1893 The Western Christian Advocate, 1897 The Demon of Noontide Reinhard Clifford Kuhn, 2017-03-14. Kierkegaard claimed that the gods created man because they were bored, and Baudelaire predicted that the delicate monster of boredom would one day swallow up the whole world in an immense yawn. Between these two statements lies the undefined expanse of ennui, whose manifestations in European literature form the fascinating subject of this book. Reinhard Kuhn's aim is to define the demon of noontide, to learn how writers through the ages have treated it, and to discover what it indicates about the nature of the creative act.
