Business Accounting and Finance for Non-specialists Catherine Gowthorpe, 2005 Business Accounting and Finance for Non Specialists is aimed at non specialist students of accounting and finance on a first course in the subject It gives a lively and wide ranging survey of the basic principles of finance financial accounting and management accounting The unique approach taken in the first Section of the book is to look at small to medium sized business organisations and their role in the economy how they are set up factors in their success and failure and how they source funds for expansion This leads to discussion of the role of financial markets and their need for financial information Sections 2 and 3 then give an account of financial and management accounting principles respectively The text is clearly written and technical jargon is minimal any technical terms are clearly explained and a glossary of terms is provided The book does not present the hurdle of double entry bookkeeping at an early stage students can progress through the book without double entry Illustrative case studies and reference to real life business examples are used to bring the technical information to life Business Accounting and Finance for Non specialists includes a large number of worked examples to give students valuable practice in using their new skills Other pedagogic elements include aims and learning outcomes summaries Case Studies with questions and solutions individual learning activities self test questions with answers provided in the book and exercises the answers to which are divided between the book and the Lecturer s Guide Website Creating Financial Value Malcolm

Allitt,2016-01-28 How many senior executives and managers are able to reach the top with little or no financial training They may have been appointed to the executive board as a result of their expertise in marketing HR sales or IT yet every board member has a responsibility to make informed decisions on proposed financial actions decisions which inevitably affect the value of their business Offering straightforward and practical advice Creating Financial Value will equip those who are not financial specialists with the necessary knowledge not only to contribute fully to important discussions on policy and strategy but also to develop sound business proposals or to competently cross examine the proposals of others Through examples from a range of business disciplines the book explains in simple digestible terms how a business creates financial value and how a non financial manager can confidently take an active role in the process Once read the book will provide an essential resource that can be referenced time and again Malcolm Allitt punctures the myths surrounding shareholder value and looks behind the finance jargon to define the boundaries between what a non specialist should know and when it is good practice to seek the advice of financial specialists This book is key reading for anyone from a non financial background who wants to execute their increasingly broad responsibilities competently and confidently without the need to become experts themselves
