

The number of inmates employed with CORCAN at each of CSC's federal correctional institutions across Canada, as of the following dates:

The below data had been retrieved with the Correctional Service of Canada's Corporate Reporting System. The system does not allow us to retrieve data by specific date, which in this case is January 1st. Nevertheless, it permits us to gather the data at the end of each monthly period. It is in this fashion that the below numbers are presented, as they indicate the number of offenders who were employed in CORCAN shops during the entire month of December of the previous year. The first table offers a national overview and the second table offers an overview per correctional institutions.
