Paul and First-Century Letter Writing E. Randolph

Richards, 2025-07-29 Traditional Christian art depicts Paul the letter writer pen in hand attentive to the Spirit We might think we know better and imagine him pacing in agitation as he rapidly dictates to a secretary his letter to the Galatians But in reality neither of these pictures is accurate In Paul's day producing a letter was a time consuming and costly business And we have ample resources from the ancient world to piece together what it must have been like A secretary was usually part of the picture But so were notes drafts corrections and careful rewrites not to speak of scratchy pens sooty ink and coarse papyrus Interestingly there is evidence that Paul involved his missionary team in the writing of letters And then came the delivery over land and sea the reading and circulation as well as the epistolary afterlife of copying collecting and storing E Randolph Richards has extensively studied ancient letter writing and secretaries Informed by the historical evidence and with a sharp eye for telltale clues in Paul's letters he takes us into this world and places us on the scene with Paul the letter writer What first appears to be just a study of secretaries and stationery turns out to be an intriguing glimpse of Paul the letter writer that overthrows our preconceptions and offers a new perspective on how this important portion of Christian Scripture came to be      Standards-Based Investigations: Forensic Science ,2008-06-02 Introduce crime scene investigation techniques familiar from popular TV programs The high interest science activities in this resource will grab learners interest while improving content area literacy and critical thinking skills Interlocking reading passages and lab activities will stimulate creativity with ideas for research projects and other presentations Includes a Teacher Resource CD with reproducible fact sheets and lab activities This resource is aligned to the interdisciplinary themes from the Partnership for 21st Century Skills and supports core concepts of STEM instruction 176pp      Helping Children with Reading and Spelling Mrs Rene Boote,Rene Boote,Rea Reason,2002-04-12 Builds on the authors highly successful manual Learning Difficulties in Reading and Writing and contains practical suggestions to help children who struggle with learning to read and spell      Language Arts Mildred R.
