

At The Pleasure Sea (Couplets)

At the tide-pool some tanned couples walk about, some children do run around and joyful they shout, the water is crystal clear with a deep hue of cobalt blue while some bathers do dive in and swim right through,

others cling to the walls where they stand and chat, dressed in a bathing-suit on your head there's a straw hat, where in perfect proportions your entire body gleam and nearby into the lagoon flows a bubbling stream, the sand of the beach is creamy-white and soft underfoot while we wait on chilled drinks from the car's boot, away the ocean stretches, in the distance its green like grass, but its sunburnt surface lies calm and it seems flat like glass while a milk-white ocean-liner appears over the far horizon and with a lazy dip into the pleasure sea our afternoon goes on, our two small toddler grandchildren seem beyond happy, their parents more reserved while a barking dog runs free, m

the water that rolls in and out barely touches their feet and picture perfect with your smile the day seem complete.
