them not with books but with his own body The meat becomes parchment The blood ink Language a secret code between the divine and the human But here is the dark and magnetic brightness of history every advance is also an abyss The book plunges headlong into the questions that leave us awake at night what if words could kill What if the wrong sound broke the world What if a perfect writing erased the universe like a deleted paragraph From miracle to tragedy from philosophy to heresy from healing to war we follow in increasing vertigo There are betrayals fanaticism mesopotamian prophecies blood shed as an argument There is a thief running away from his own gift a priestess changes trying to save the world with the only silence worth and a final letter that may never be read This book is not just a story it is an invocation A text that folds upon yourself asking What if all reality is a sentence waiting for an end point With each chapter we feel that we are about to discover something forbidden something too big And we follow hungry readers guided by pure craving sacred curiosity as if each page carries a spell and perhaps it really loads Readers in love with The Seventh Function of Language Wind Name Foundation or Sandman will feel at home and yet foreigners Because here in this work of Edii Camara nothing is familiar and everything is essential Reading this book is like deciphering a codex that has been hidden under the stones of history And you lucky reader have just found the first page Don t stop Perhaps, Someday Edward Kendrick,2016-03-06 Caiden McNeil is a special being a metamorph who can become any human necessary to stop the criminals his elven boss Zander sends him after Caiden is also a loner unable to trust anyone on an emotional level He has reason to feel this way in his over eight hundred years he has learned that caring for someone only leads to despair After all how could a human accept him for what he really is an immortal who will never seem to grow older than his apparent age of twenty eight Then two men come into Caiden s life Leander a cougar shifter and Theirn a half elf Either may betray Caiden and his belief that their feelings for him are real On the other hand is one of them willing to fight to prove love is possible if Caiden will only give it a chance
