How to Read Texts Neil McCaw, 2013-09-26 Now in its second edition How to Read Texts introduces students to key critical approaches to literary texts and offers a practical introduction for students developing their own critical and close reading skills. Written in a lively jargon free style it explains critical concepts approaches and ideas including Debates around critical theory The role of history and context The links between creativity and criticism The relationship between author reader and text The new edition now includes guidance on analysing a range of multi media texts including film and online media as well as the purely literary. In addition to new practical examples readings exercises and checkpoints that help students to build confidence in their own critical readings of both primary and secondary texts the book now also offers guidance on writing fully formed critical essays and tips for independent research. Comprehensively updated and revised throughout How to Read Texts is an indispensable guide for students making the transition to university study. Mastering

Reading Comprehension Workbook Year 6 Champions Learning Centre, 2019-03-08 Mastering English Reading Comprehension Workbook for year 6 is a unique compilation of 10 topics that we have used over the years to raise the reading attainment for year 6 children. By using these topics we have achieved a 100% attainment for year 6 SATs. It helps children to annotate understand compare and contrast draw inferences and answer questions correctly in order to achieve the highest possible marks. The workbook addresses the issues of difficult text and provide practical ways for children to find text interesting so that they can answer the questions correctly. We have used many books workbooks guides internet resources over the years to support teaching and learning but this workbook is a class a part. For parents who want to see their children excel in reading then this is your best choice and for children who want to master the art of reading comprehension then this workbook is your companion. Intimidator Frank Vehorn, 1995-06 Those who know stock car racing well are not surprised at Dale Earnhardt's ability and reputation. It's in his blood they say for Dale is Ralph's boy and Ralph Earnhardt was one of the hardest driving racers on the small tracks of the south in the 50s and 60s. Veteran stock car racing writer Frank Vehorn chronicles the hardships the conflicts and the triumphs in Dale Earnhardt's hard driving career.

Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower, 2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education. Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects. At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life. The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health.

concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators
