Action Research Nurses Peter McDonnell:

Action Research for Nurses Peter McDonnell, Jean McNiff, 2015-11-09 Nurses work in complex situations with daily challenges where the needs of each patient represent unique demands Action research helps nurses to investigate their practices as reflective practitioners allowing them to ask What is going on How do we understand the existing situation How do we improve it This book supports nurses in investigating their own professional practices in order to develop the new insights and approaches embodying holistic perspectives in dialogical and relational forms of individual and organisational learning equal emphasis on processes and outcomes welcoming all participants contributions and listening to all voices developing a patient centred focus where people are involved in their own healing building communities of enquiring practices This book is intended for undergraduate student nurses qualified practising nurses in clinical settings who may or may not be engaged in formal professional education courses and nurse educators and managers Action Research for Professional Selling Peter McDonnell, Jean McNiff, 2016-03-23 Action Research for Professional Selling by Peter McDonnell and Jean McNiff is for people working or hoping to work in sales who wish to improve their capacity for selling and who may be involved in providing or participating in a structured sales training programme It provides a basis for professional selling that connects the sales process to different philosophical models for understanding human interactions and contains much practical advice for selling in a tough economic environment Action research is used across the professions as a powerful methodology for improving performance and outcomes and will enable sales practitioners to generate their practical theories of selling The book answers calls for evidence based practice in sales education placing special emphasis on the strength of a values based approach over the outmoded manipulative models of the past many of which are still in evidence It is essential to develop your understanding of what you are doing and be able to explain it and the book shows you how to do this through researching your practice in action It focuses seriously on selling as a field of research offering an innovative practical approach to selling underpinned by strong theoretical and philosophical frameworks Representations of the Academic Jean McNiff, 2023-03-31 This thoughtful volume challenges widely accepted traditionalist scientific notions of the academic prevalent in higher education institutions globally in order to promote best practice and redefine the field as accessible inclusive and forward thinking This book situates itself away from the dominant discourse on academia and eschews the common tropes that have proved prohibitive to furthering the field and research within By releasing the academic from the restrictive narrow boundaries typically imposed Representations of the Academic opens up a form of public sphere where the contributors bring together their innovative views to propose a new normative form Chapters explore examples of good practice that demonstrate alternative ways of thinking and in doing so the book continues an emergent tradition of investigating the origins nature and purposes of academic work at a time when critical values are under threat The book will be of interest to students academics and researchers in the fields of education educational research and higher and professional education more broadly Those involved with interdisciplinary and intercultural studies ethics and values in research will also benefit from this volume

You and Your Action Research Project Jean McNiff, 2016-04-14 You and Your Action Research Project is packed full of useful advice to take the reader through the various stages of an action research project Written for practitioners across professions who are studying on work based learning programmes and award bearing courses this book contains practical strategies for improving project work Split into the following five sections Thinking about doing a project Getting ready to do a project Planning a project and managing it Doing your project Evaluating your action research project the structure is clearly accessible and easy to read encouraging readers of cross curricular interests from teachers to nurses and social workers to try new approaches This fourth edition of the best seller has been thoroughly updated and improved with new and up to date case study material from a very wide range of disciplines greater emphasis on the need for dialogical practices points for reflection more developed ideas about sorting and analysing data and a stronger focus on writing as a form of research With key sections on engaging with the literatures and collaborative practices whilst also developing ideas about writing and data analysis this book will be essential reading for those wanting to begin and further develop their action research Jean McNiff is an independent researcher and writer Professor of Educational Research at York St John University and Adjunct Professor at the University of Limerick She is also the author of key text Action Research Principles and Practice
