different types of literature they mmay not have read before biography mystery drama fairy tales romance mythology and science fiction With suggestions for other books to read and special activities in each unit The Tolerance Trap Suzanna Danuta Walters,2014-05-02 From Glee to gay marriage from lesbian senators to out gay Marines we have undoubtedly experienced a seismic shift in attitudes about gays in American politics and culture Our reigning national story is that a new era of rainbow acceptance is at hand But dig a bit deeper and this seemingly brave new gay world is disappointing For all of the undeniable changes the plea for tolerance has sabotaged the full integration of gays into American life Same sex marriage is unrecognized and unpopular in the vast majority of states hate crimes proliferate and even in the much vaunted gay friendly world of Hollywood and celebrity culture precious few stars are openly gay In The Tolerance Trap Suzanna

Walters takes on received wisdom about gay identities and gay rights arguing that we are not almost there but on the contrary have settled for a watered down goal of tolerance and acceptance rather than a robust claim to full civil rights After all we tolerate unpleasant realities medicine with strong side effects a long commute an annoying relative Drawing on a vast array of sources and sharing her own personal journey Walters shows how the low bar of tolerance demeans rather than ennoble both gays and straights alike Her fascinating examination covers the gains in political inclusion and the persistence of anti gay laws the easy out sexual freedom of queer youth and the suicides and murders of those in decidedly intolerant environments She challenges both born that way storylines that root civil rights in biology and god made me that way arguments that similarly situate sexuality as innate and impervious to decisions we make to shape it A sharp and provocative cultural critique this book deftly argues that a too soon declaration of victory short circuits full equality and deprives us all of the transformative possibilities of full integration Tolerance is not the end goal but a dead end In The Tolerance Trap Walters presents a complicated snapshot of a world shifting moment in American history one that is both a wake up call and a call to arms for anyone seeking true equality

Containing Childhood Danielle Russell, 2022-11-29 Contributions by Miranda A Green Barteet Kathleen Kellett Andrew McInnes Joyce McPherson Rebecca Mills Cristina Rivera Wendy Rountree Danielle Russell Anah Jayne Samuelson Sonya Sawyer Fritz Andrew Trevarrow and Richardine Woodall Home School Nature

The spaces children occupy both physically and imaginatively are never neutral Instead they carry social cultural and political histories that impose or attempt to impose behavioral expectations Moreover the spaces identified with childhood reflect and reveal adult expectations of where children belong The essays in Containing Childhood Space and Identity in Children's Literature explore the multifaceted and dynamic nature of space as well as the relationship between space and identity in children's literature Contributors to the volume address such questions as What is the nature of that relationship

What happens to the spaces associated with childhood over time How do children conceptualize and lay claim to their own spaces The book features essays on popular and lesser known children s fiction from North America and Great Britain including works like The Hate U Give His Dark Materials The Giver quartet and Shadowshaper Adopting a multidisciplinary approach in their analysis contributors draw upon varied scholarly areas such as philosophy race class and gender studies among others Without reducing the issues to any singular theory or perspective each piece provides insight into specific treatments of space in specific periods of time thereby affording scholars a greater appreciation of the diverse spatial patterns in children s literature

Cub Reporters Paige Gray,2019-08-01 Cub Reporters considers the intersections between children s literature and journalism in the United States during the period between the Civil War and World War I American children s literature of this time including works from such writers as L Frank Baum Horatio Alger Jr and Richard Harding Davis as well as unique journalistic examples including the children s page of the Chicago Defender subverts the idea of news In these works journalism is not a reporting of fact but a reporting of artifice or human made apparatus artistic technological psychological cultural or otherwise Using a methodology that combines approaches from literary analysis historicism cultural studies media studies and childhood studies Paige Gray shows how the cub reporters of children s literature report the truth of artifice and relish it They signal an embrace of artifice as a means to access individual agency and in doing so both child and adult readers are encouraged to deconstruct and create the world anew
