thereby demonstrating how literature shapes and is shaped by our response to the pressing questions of our time Pigeon Trouble Hoon Song, 2011-06-06 Pigeon Trouble chronicles a foreign born birdphobic anthropologist's venture into the occult craft of pigeon shooting in the depths of Pennsylvania's anthracite coal country. Though initially drawn by a widely publicized antipigeon shoot protest by animal rights activists, the author quickly finds himself traversing into a territory much stranger than clashing worldviews: an uncanny world saturated with pigeon matters both figuratively and literally. What transpires is a sustained meditation on self-reflexivity as the author teeters at the limit of his investigation, his own fear of birds. The result is an intimate portrayal of the miners' world of conspiracy theory, anti-Semitism, and whiteness, all inscribed one way or another by pigeon matters and seen through the anguished eyes of a birdphobe. This bestiary experiment, through a phobic gaze, concludes with a critique on the visual trope in anthropology's self-reflexive turn. An ethnographer with a taste for philosophy, Song writes in a distinctive descriptive and analytical style, obsessed with his locale and its inhabitants, constantly monitoring his own reactions and his impact on others but always teasing out larger implications to his subject. Smelling to Survive Bill S. Hansson, 2024-08-13 Smell is arguably the least understood sense yet it has always been a vital component of the human experience and that of all living creatures. Smell has been used by plants and animals for millions of years to warn, to attract, to identify, to navigate, and even to mislead. Smelling to Survive explains some of these fascinating processes and explores how the past would have smelled quite different to our ancestors and how future technologies will further change the world of scents. Along the way, leading scientist Bill S. Hansson recounts amazing stories from the world of olfactory research: from the tobacco plant that excretes an alarm odour to mosquitoes that cherish the smell of sweaty feet to lilies that imitate the fragrance of a dead horse. Hansson explains why scientists are interested in the smell that surrounds teenage males and how climate change affects the smell of our environment. He describes research trips to Christmas Island where crabs with particularly keen noses crack coconuts on the beach and outlines studies that reveal how penguins recognize their partner by their scent. Born in Sweden, the neuroethologist Bill S. Hansson served as Vice President of the Max Planck Society and is currently Director of the Max Planck Institute for Chemical Ecology in Jena, Germany, and an honorary professor at Friedrich Schiller University. His research centres on the question of how plants and insects communicate through scent. Le pigeon Patrick Süskind, 1987 Lorsque lui arriva cette histoire de pigeon qui du jour au lendemain bouleversa son existence, Jonathan No. 1 avait déjà passé la cinquantaine; il avait derrière lui une période d'une bonne vingtaine d'années qui n'avait pas marqué par le moindre événement et jamais il n'aurait escompté que peut-être encore lui arriverait rien de notable, sauf de mourir un jour. Et cela lui convenait tout fait. Car il n'aimait pas les événements et il avait une véritable horreur de ceux qui branlaient son équilibre intérieur et chamboulaient l'ordonnance de sa vie. The Pigeon by Patrick Süskind and The Overcoat by Nikolai Gogol Yevgeniya Iosilevich, 1999 Theorizing Animals Nik Taylor, Tania Signal, 2011-04-21 Drawing on current trends in post-modernism and post-humanism, this book offers a challenge to current ways of thinking, theorising, and talking about animals.

and humanimal relations The Politics of Islamophobia David Tyrer, 2013-11-08 Following 9 11 7 7 and the War on Terror Islamophobia has become a ubiquitous expression of political racism its presence is felt in immigration restrictions critiques of multiculturalism and the co option of feminism that casts Muslim women as abject figures Throughout the book what emerges is that most of our knowledge of Muslim communities is apprehended through signifiers as defined by liberal politicians and media there is the aforementioned maligned Muslim female the ontically pure religious Muslim and the fundamentalist terrorist Through study of instances where politicians from Tony Blair and David Cameron to Geert Wilders and Enoch Powell activate these racist essentialisms we begin to see how Islamophobia takes form as an expression of racialised governmentality By mobilising accounts across different national contexts David Tyrer reveals how Islamophobia is defining relations between states and ethnicised minorities The Pigeon ,2017 The New York Times Book Review ,1989-07 Mr. Summer's Story Patrick Süskind, 1993 A deceptively simple tale of the destruction of a child s innocence By the author of Perfume 10 17 LP I S BTS tout-en-un Méthodes et entraînements.
