Feldman, 2021-08-13 Place memory and the postwar Enacting post conflict nationhood Yuyanapaq doesn't fit There isn't just one memory there are many memories Memory under construction Memory's futures Andean Truths Anne Lambright, 2015 Studies the way in which literature drama film and the visual arts contest the dominant narrative of national peace and reconciliation as constructed by Peru's Truth and Reconciliation Commission Transposed Memory: Visual Sites of National Recollection in 20th and 21st Century East Asia, 2024-02-06 Transposed Memory explores the visual culture of national recollection in modern and contemporary East Asia by emphasizing memories that are under the continuous process of construction reinforcement alteration resistance and contestation Expanding the discussion of memory into visual culture by exploring various visual sites of recollection and the diverse ways commemoration is represented in visual cultural and material forms this book produces cross cultural and interdisciplinary conversations on memory and site by bringing together international scholars from the fields of art history history architecture and theater and dance examining intercultural relationships in East Asia through geopolitical conditions and visual culture With contributions of Rika Iezumi Hiro Ruo Jia Burglind Jungmann Hong Kal Stephen McDowall Alison J Miller Jessica Nakamura Eunyoung Park Travis Seifman and Linh D Vu Gastropolitics and the Specter of Race María Elena García, 2021-03-15 In recent years Peru has transformed from a war torn country to a global high end culinary destination Connecting chefs state agencies global capital and Indigenous producers this gastronomic revolution makes powerful claims food unites Peruvians dissolves racial antagonisms and fuels development Gastropolitics and the Specter of Race critically evaluates these claims and tracks the emergence of Peruvian gastropolitics a biopolitical and aesthetic set of practices that reinscribe dominant racial and gendered orders Through critical readings of high end menus and ethnographic analysis of culinary festivals guinea pig production and national branding campaigns this work explores the intersections of race species and capital to reveal links between gastronomy and violence in Peru Reading the Walls of Bogotá Alba Griffin, 2023-06-13 A cultural imaginary is a structuring space through which collective understandings of cultural and society phenomena are formed reproduced and accepted as the norm Reading the Walls of Bogotá uses graffiti and street art to explore the urban imaginaries of violence in Bogotá Colombia These artistic forms are produced and received in different ways in different areas of the city and offer an insight into citizens everyday experiences and perceptions of violence from the political to the personal to that of structural inequality Through graffiti in which critiques of memory space politics and aesthetics are embedded artists and their viewers form vernacular theories through which they interpret the world and the spaces they inhabit By focusing on creative expression Alba Griffin shows how Bogot s residents respond to imaginaries of violence how they critique the norms how they appropriate space to challenge or negotiate violence and how they push back against inequality

The Shining Path in Huancavelica, Peru Nicholas A. Robins, 2024-02-19 This is the first work exploring the colonial roots modern context trajectory and legacy of the Shining Path insurgency in the region of Huancavelica Peru one of Peru s most impoverished and Quechua speaking regions The use of terroristic violence to implement a revolutionary and exclusivist ideology was without precedent in Latin America presaging later movements such as ISIS Integrating interviews testimonials survey data and the vast primary and secondary literature on the insurgency this work examines how Huancavelican communities experienced and continue to shoulder the consequences of an exterminatory conflict thirty years after the insurgency was largely although not entirely defeated

Global Child Myriam Denov, Claudia Mitchell, Marjorie Rabiau, 2023-01-13 Armed conflicts continue to wreak havoc on children and families around the world with profound effects In 2017 420 million children nearly one in five were living in conflict affected areas an increase in 30 million from the previous year The recent surge in war induced migration referred to as a global refugee crisis has made migration a highly politicized issue with refugee populations and host countries facing unique challenges We know from research related to asylum seeking families that it is vital to think about children and families in relation to what it means to stay together what it means for parents to be separated from their children and the kinds of everyday tensions that emerge in living in dangerous insecure and precarious circumstances In Global Child the authors draw on what they have learned through their collaborative undertakings and highlight the unique features of participatory arts based and socio ecological approaches to studying war affected children and families demonstrating the collective strength as well as the limitations and ethical implications of such research Building on work across the Global South and the Global North this book aims to deepen an understanding of their tri pillared approach and the potential of this methodology for contributing to improved practices in working with war affected children and their families

Justice, Memory and Redress in Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2017-01-06 Are there any lessons Romania can teach transitional justice scholars and practitioners This book argues that important insights emerge when analyzing a country with a moderate record of coming to terms with its communist past Taking a broad definition of transitional justice as their starting point contributors provide fresh assessments of the history commission court trials public identifications of former communist perpetrators commemorations and unofficial artistic projects that seek to address and redress the legacies of communist human rights violations Theoretical and practical questions regarding the continuity of state agencies the sequencing of initiatives their advantages and limitations the reasons why some reckoning programs are enacted and others are not and these measures efficacy in promoting truth and justice are answered throughout the volume Contributors include seasoned scholars from Romania Canada the United States and the United Kingdom and current and former leaders of key Romanian transitional justice institutions

How the Military Remembers Cynthia E. Milton, Michael Lazzara, 2025 This groundbreaking collection of essays examines how Latin American militaries construct memories of past human rights violations in ways that challenge established public memory and human rights discourse While previous studies have focused on democratization transitional justice and victim centered narratives this volume takes a different approach It highlights the importance of deconstructing the military's own active memory work or their counter-memories a term the editors use to describe military narratives that are both counterintuitive and that run counter to the victim oriented memories that have long dominated the region's public memory With attention to the distinct cultural political and historical contexts across Latin America the essays reveal how military figures and institutions appropriate mechanisms of truth telling and accountability to reframe the past blur the lines between perpetrator and victim and weaponize memory itself Contributors Mariana Achugar Gabriela Fried Amilivia Rebecca Atencio Jo Marie Burt Rachel Hatcher Nicol's Rodríguez Idroaga Michael J Lazzara Cynthia E Milton Carla Granados Moya María Emma Wills Obregón Leith Passmore Valentina Salvi Gladys Viquez Zevallos

Political Memory and the Aesthetics of Care Mihaela Mihai, 2022-01-11 With this nuanced and interdisciplinary work political theorist Mihaela Mihai tackles several interrelated questions How do societies remember histories of systemic violence Who is excluded from such histories cast of characters And what are the political costs of selective remembering in the present Building on insights from political theory social epistemology and feminist and critical race theory Mihai argues that a double erasure often structures hegemonic narratives of complex violence of widespread heterogeneous complicity and of impure resistances not easily subsumed to exceptionalist heroic models In dialogue with care ethicists and philosophers of art she then suggests that such narrative reductionism can be disrupted aesthetically through practices of mnemonic care that is through the hermeneutical labor that critical artists deliver thematically and formally within communities space of meaning Empirically the book examines both consecrated and marginalized artists who tackled the memory of Vichy France communist Romania and apartheid South Africa Despite their specificities these contexts present us with an opportunity to analyze similar mnemonic dynamics and to recognize the political impact of dissenting artistic production Crossing disciplinary boundaries the book intervenes in debates over collective responsibility historical injustice and the aesthetics of violence within political theory memory studies social epistemology and transitional justice

Art as a Political Witness Kia Lindroos, Frank Möller, 2017-02-13 The book explores the concept of artistic witnessing as political activity In which ways may art and artists bear witness to political events The Contributors engage with dance film photography performance poetry and theatre and explore artistic witnessing as political activity in a wide variety of case studies

Gender, Transitional Justice and Memorial Arts Jelke Boesten, Helen Scanlon, 2021-05-17 This book examines the role of post conflict memorial arts in bringing about gender justice in transitional societies Art and post violence memorialisation are currently widely debated Scholars of human rights and of commemorative arts discuss the aesthetics and politics not only of sites of commemoration but of literature poetry visual arts and increasingly film and comics Art memory and activism are also increasingly intertwined But within the literature around post conflict transitional justice and critical human rights studies there is little questioning about what memorial arts do for gender justice how women and men are included and represented and how this intertwines with other questions of identity and representation such as race and ethnicity The book brings together research from scholars around the world who are interested in the gendered dimensions of memory making in transitional societies Addressing a global range of cases including genocide authoritarianism civil war electoral violence and apartheid they consider not only the gendered commemoration of past violence but also the possibility of producing counter narratives that unsettle and challenge established stereotypes Aimed at those interested in the fields of transitional justice memory studies post conflict peacebuilding human rights and gender studies this book will appeal to academics researchers and practitioners The

Fate of Peruvian Democracy Tamara Feinstein, 2023-09-15 Tamara Feinstein investigates the bloody Shining Path conflict's effect on the legal Left in late twentieth century Peru illustrating the catastrophic impact state and insurgent violence can have on the growth and resilience of democratic political actors during times of war In this engaging historical study Tamara Feinstein chronicles the late twentieth century Shining Path conflict and argues that it significantly contributed to the rupture and disintegration of the noninsurgent legal Left in Peru by deepening preexisting divisions and eradicating an entire generation of leaders Using a combination of oral histories archival documents contemporary media accounts and participant observation of commemorations Feinstein maps the trajectory of the Peruvian Left's rise and fall by analyzing two emblematic human rights cases that occurred at the Left's zenith and nadir the state based violence of the 1986 Lima prison massacres and the 1992 Shining Path assassination of leftist shantytown leader Mar a Elena Moyano The lessons found in The Fate of Peruvian Democracy reach beyond Peru to connect with other Latin American countries Peru's story illustrates the difficulties of accumulating political force during times of violence underscores how struggles for self defense can complicate ideological stances on violence and helps explain the unevenness of the resurgence of the Left the so called pink tide in Latin America in the twenty first century The book contributes to debates on memory and human rights in Peru and Latin America where divisions over how to remember the war retraced the fault lines of earlier debates over democracy and violence

The Oxford Handbook of Global LGBT and Sexual Diversity Politics Michael J. Bosia, Sandra M. McEvoy, Momin Rahman, 2020 Struggles for LGBT rights and the security of sexual and gender minorities are ongoing urgent concerns across the world For students scholars and activists who work on these and related issues this handbook provides a unique interdisciplinary resource In chapters by both emerging and senior scholars the Oxford Handbook of Global LGBT and Sexual Diversity Politics introduces key concepts in LGBT political studies and queer theory Additionally the handbook offers historical geographic and topical case studies contextualized within theoretical frameworks from the sociology of sexualities
