Art Talk Eileen Potter Kopelman, 2005 North American Muslim Women Artists Talk Back Kenza Oumlil, 2022-07-21
This book focuses on the ways in which North American Muslim women artists talk back to dominant discourses about Muslim identity and work to counter mainstream stereotypes and representations. It examines the possibilities of constructing discourses of resistance to domination. Against a backdrop of dominant media representations of oppressed and passive Muslim women, the media interventions of the exceptional women artists whose voices are showcased in this book demonstrate that Muslim women are diverse and autonomous agents who have historically and continue contemporarily to fight against all forms of injustice, including those that seek to circumscribe their realities and experiences. To explore expressions and articulations of alternative discourses, this book analyzes the media texts of exceptional women artists: the stand-up comedy of Palestinian American Maysoon Zayid, the cinematic interventions of Iranian American Shirin Neshat, and the television comedy of Pakistani Canadian Zarqa Nawaz. Using a methodology consisting of a textual analysis grounded in the theoretical framework of postcolonial theory and informed by gender studies and alternative media research, the analysis is supplemented with semi-structured interviews with the artists. This book is suitable for scholars and students in Gender Studies, Media Studies, Cultural Studies, Sociology, and Politics.

E-Learning and the Academic Library Scott Rice, Margaret N. Gregor, 2016-04-27
Focusing on academic libraries and librarians who are extending the boundaries of e-learning, this collection of essays presents new ways of using information and communication technologies to create learning experiences for a variety of user communities. Essays feature e-learning projects involving MOOCs, massive open online courses, augmented reality, chatbots, and other innovative applications. Contributors describe the process of project development from determination of need to exploration of tools, project design, and user assessment.

Performance Artists Talking in the Eighties Linda M. Montano, 2023-09-01
Performance artist Linda Montano, curious about the influence childhood experience has on adult work, invited other performance artists to consider how early events associated with sex, food, money, fame, or death ritual resurfaced in their later work. The result is an original and compelling talking performance that documents the production of art in an important and often misunderstood community. Among the more than 100 artists Montano interviewed from 1979 to 1989 were John Cage, Suzanne Lacy, Faith Ringgold, Dick Higgins, Annie Sprinkle, Allan Kaprow, Meredith Monk, Eric Bogosian, Adrian Piper, Karen Finley, and Kim Jones. Her discussions with them focused on the relationship between art and life, history and memory, the individual and society, and the potential for individual and social change. The interviews highlight complex issues in performance art, including the role of identity in performer-audience relationships and art as an exploration of everyday conventions rather than a demonstration of virtuosity. Performance artist Linda Montano, curious about the influence childhood experience has on adult work, invited other performance artists to consider how early events associated with sex, food, money, fame, or death ritual resurfaced in their

Audience Engagement and the Role of Arts Talk in the Digital Era L. Conner, 2013-12-11 This book offers readers an understanding of the theoretical framework for the concept of Arts Talk provides historical background and a review of current thinking about the interpretive process and most importantly provides ideas and insights into building audience centered and audience powered conversations about the arts A Traveler's Guide to Art Therapy Supervision Monica Carpendale, 2011 The intention of this book is three fold to be a supervision handbook for art therapy students to be a self or peer supervision resource for professional therapists and to provide a framework for training art therapy supervisors While the underlying framework is grounded in psychoanalysis and existentialism the Traveler's Guide introduces a hermeneutic phenomenological method which incorporates social constructivism and metaphor theory The book covers key aspects of supervision identifying the principles and goals discusses different models and techniques explores the state of mind and attitude of the supervisor focuses on the awareness of culture reflects on transference and counter transference dynamics the supervisee-supervisor relationship and the challenges that can emerge Metaphors weave throughout the book The journey metaphor of engaging in open ended exploration runs through the chapters with ecological and gardening metaphors sprouting at different points Written as a traveler's guide the combination of theory and creative activities are intended to deepen the exploration The Traveler's Guide will be of value for all counselors and therapists beginners and professionals It provides the backbone for understanding the process and a rich resource of art based activities for deepening the supervisee's engagement A Study of Management Policy and Other Problems of the National Forests United States. Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture. Subcommittee on Forests, 1967 Artistic Truth Lambert Zuidervaat, 2004-10-18 It is unfashionable to talk about artistic truth Yet the issues traditionally addressed under that term have not disappeared Indeed questions concerning the role of the artist in society the relationship between art and knowledge and the validity of cultural interpretation have intensified Lambert Zuidervaat challenges intellectual fashions He proposes a new critical hermeneutics of artistic truth that engages with both analytic and continental philosophies and illuminates the contemporary cultural scene. People turn to the arts as a way of finding orientation in their lives, communities and institutions. But philosophers hamstrung by their own theories of truth have been unsuccessful in accounting for this common feature in our lives. This book portrays artistic truth as a process of imaginative disclosure in which expectations of authenticity, significance and integrity prevail. Understood in this way, truth becomes central to the aesthetic and social value of the arts. Theorising the Artist Interview Lucia Farinati, Jennifer Thatcher, 2024-08-29. Reflecting on the relationship between artists and their audiences, this book examines how artists have presented themselves publicly through interviews and sought to establish a critical voice for themselves. Considering the interview as a form of cultural production, contributors explore the criteria for determining the artist interview as a distinct field of research in relation to other cultural fields. Structured in four parts: History and Historiography, Subverting the Biographical Model, Interviews as Practice and Materiality, and Technology, the book takes an interdisciplinary approach that encompasses the fields of art history, fine art, oral history, curating, media studies, and museum conservation. By theorising the artist interview as a form of cultural production and embracing it as a co-constructed critical practice, this volume aims to show and encourage an approach to art history which dismantles old hierarchies in favour of valuing dialogue and collaboration. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, museum studies, oral history, and historiography. Arts Review, 1987. 400+ Interview Questions & Answers For Abstract Artist Role CloudRoar Consulting Services, 2025-08-15.
