into Soviet era animation brings to light magnificent art ruminations on the human condition and celebrations of innocence and joy As art reveals the spirit of the times animation art of Eastern Europe during the Cold War funded by the Soviet states allowed artists to create works illuminating to their experiences hopes and fears The political ideology of the time ironically supported these artists while simultaneously suppressing more direct critiques of Soviet life Politics shaped the world of these artists who then fashioned their realities into amazing works of animation Their art is integral to the circumstances in which they lived which is why this book combines the unlikely combination of world politics and animated cartoons The phenomenal animated films shared in this book offer a glimpse into the culture and hearts of Soviet citizens who grew up with characters as familiar and beloved to them as Mickey Mouse and Bugs Bunny are to Americans This book lays out the basic political dynamics of the Cold War and how those political tensions affected the animation industry in both the US and in the Eastern Bloc And for animation novices and enthusiasts alike Animation Behind the Iron Curtain also offers breakout sections to explain many of the techniques and aesthetic considerations that go into this fascinating art form This book is a must read for anyone interested in the Cold War era and really cool animated films

Traditional Monster Imagery in Manga, Anime and Japanese Cinema Zilia Papp,2010-10-29 Traditional Monster Imagery in Manga Anime and Japanese Cinema builds on the earlier volume Anime and its Roots in Early Japanese Monster Art that aimed to position contemporary Japanese animation within a wider art historical context by tracing the development of monster representations in Edo and Meiji period art works and post war visual media While the previous volume concentrated on modern media representations this work focuses on how Western art historical concepts and methodology might be adapted when considering non Western works introducing traditional monster art in more detail while also maintaining its links to post war animation sequential art and Japanese cinema The book aims at a general readership interested in Japanese art and media as well as graduate students who might be searching for a research model within the fields of Animation Studies Media Studies or Visual Communication Design

The Crafty Animator Caroline Ruddell,Paul Ward,2019-04-03 This collection is a study of the value of craft as it can be understood within the study and practice of animation The book reconsiders the position of craft which is often understood as inferior to art with a particular focus on questions of labour in animation production and gendered practices The notion of craft has been widely investigated in a number of areas including art design and textiles but despite the fact that a wide range of animators use craft based techniques the value of craft has not been interrogated in this context until now Seeking to address such a gap in the literature this collection considers the concept of craft through a range of varying case studies Chapters include studies on experimental animation computer animation trauma and memory children s animation and silhouette animation among others The Crafty Animator also goes some way to exploring the relationship craft has with the digital in the context of animation production Through these varied discussions this book problematizes simplistic notions about the value of certain methods and techniques working to create a dialogue between craft and animation

Race and the Animated Bodyscape Francis M. Agnoli,2023-04-21 Race does not exist in animation it must instead be constructed and ascribed Yet over the past few years there has been growing discourse on the intersection of these two subjects within both academic and popular circles In Race and the Animated Bodyscape Constructing and Ascribing a Racialized Asian Identity in Avatar and Korra author Francis M Agnoli introduces and illustrates the concept of the animated bodyscape looking specifically at the US television series Avatar The Last Airbender and its sequel The Legend of Korra Rather than consider animated figures as unified wholes Agnoli views them as complexes of signs made up of visual aural and narrative components that complement contradict and otherwise interact with each other in the creation of meaning Every one of these components matters as they are each the result of a series of creative decisions made by various personnel across different production processes This volume re constructs production narratives for Avatar and Korra using original and preexisting interviews with cast and crew members as well as behind the scenes material Each chapter addresses how different types of components were generated tracing their development from preliminary research to final animation In doing so this project identifies the interlocking sets of production communities behind the making of animation and thus behind the making of racialized identities Due to its illusory and constructed nature animation affords untapped opportunities to approach the topic of race in media looking beyond the role of the actor and taking into account the various factors and processes behind the production of racialized performances The analysis of race and animation calls for a holistic approach one that treats both the visual and the aural as intimately connected This volume offers a blueprint for how to approach the analysis of race and animation The Teachers' Animation Toolkit Britta Pollmüller, Martin

Sercombe, 2011-09-01 Including animation in your classroom can improve literacy and numeracy develop critical thinking communication and problem solving skills enhance teamwork and negotiation encourage creativity This toolkit together with an extensive companion website will give you the confidence to use animation in your classroom From teaching basic flip book animation right through to producing an animated film there are drawing templates for the less confident artists and tried and tested schemes of work plus advice on how to use animation equipment and what technology and software is available This practical cross curricular resource is particularly suitable for use with students aged 11-16 although many of the activities can be adapted for older or younger students It can be used in Art Media Studies ICT and many other subjects to engage learners of all styles and abilities Animation Scott Curtis, 2019-02-08 The last installment of the acclaimed Behind the Silver Screen series Animation explores the variety of technologies and modes of production throughout the history of American animation Drawing on archival sources to analyze the relationship between production and style this volume provides also a unique approach to understanding animation in general East-West Identities, 2007-10-30 Under the simultaneous influences of globalization and localization there has emerged a prevalent social formation based on a hybridized culture in which the cultural norms are many and various boundary transcendence alternative cultures cultural hybridity cultural creativity connectivity tolerance multiculturalism cosmopolitanism While the economic forces shaping globalization are powerful and seemingly getting stronger they are not immutable nor are their effects predictable or necessarily overwhelming Contributors to this book are optimistic that the socio cultural formations of the future such as cultural hybridity and cosmopolitanism will be a viable option for constructing new or renewed global communities of migrants around the world It is on these diasporic communities that the self definition the self identity and cultural expansion of all migrants depend and it is with these tools that migrants are best equipped to navigate the raging torrents of globalization in the new millennium of a post postmodern era Globalization brings with it a fear a sense of loss and demise It also brings with it a new sense of opportunity and hope It is in this spirit that this book should be read Contributors Chan Kwok bun Jan W Walls David Hayward Michael E DeGolyer Lam Wai man Georgette Wang Emilie Yeh Yueh yu Lu Fang Nan M Sussman Rie Ito Oscar Bulaong Jr Brian Chan Hok shing Millie Creighton Anthony Y H Fung Ho Wai chung Chiou Syuan Yuan Chris Wood Chung Ling Steve Fore Todd Joseph Miles Holden Ashley Tellis Jeffrey S Wilkinson Steven McClung
