Tawa, 1982 Tawa examines the musical traditions brought to America by the peasants and urban workers of southern Italy the Middle East and eastern Europe and by the Chinese Japanese and East European Jews and describes their survival within the American context in often hostile surroundings Christianity in China Xiaoxin Wu, 2015-07-17 Now revised and updated to incorporate numerous new materials this is the major source for researching American Christian activity in China especially that of missions and missionaries It provides a thorough introduction and guide to primary and secondary sources on Christian enterprises and individuals in China that are preserved in hundreds of libraries archives historical societies headquarters of religious orders and other repositories in the United States It includes data from the beginnings of Christianity in China in the early eighth century through 1952 when American missionary activity in China virtually ceased For this new edition the institutional base has shifted from the Princeton Theological Seminary Protestant to the Ricci Institute for Chinese Western Cultural Relations at the University of San Francisco Jesuit reflecting the ecumenical nature of this monumental undertaking Agricultural Leaders' Digest, 1960 The Sound Bite Society Jeffrey Scheuer, 2013-11-05 It was once said that all politics is local But today all politics is televisual Candidates spend millions on TV ads Most people get their news from TV s sound bites Television doesn t just affect politics it is politics But how does that mega medium shape our political ideas and values In THE SOUND BITE SOCIETY Jeffrey Scheuer argues that the rise of television is directly linked to the decline of the American left and the ascent of the Electronic Right Political argument has been simplified to quick telegraphic TV sound bites which he argues inherently favor the right wing Television s visual and rhetorical conventions are biased toward simplicity Scheuer argues making it the perfect vehicle for conservative messages advocating a simpler society and smaller government Web site www.thesoundbitesociety.com Words on Cassette, 2002 R R Bowker Publishing, 2002 The Educational Screen, 1955 Music, Books on Music, and Sound Recordings Library of Congress, 1989 Dictionary Catalog of the Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound, 1981 Educational Screen and Audiovisual Guide, 1959 Sound Heritage Jeanice Brooks, Matthew Stephens, Wiebke Thormählen, 2021-12-30 Sound Heritage is the first study of music in the historic house museum featuring contributions from both music and heritage scholars and professionals in a richly interdisciplinary approach to central issues It examines how music materials can be used to create narratives about past inhabitants and their surroundings including aspects of social and cultural life beyond the activity of music making itself and explores how music as sound material and practice can be more consistently and engagingly integrated into the curation and interpretation of historic houses The volume is structured around a selection of thematic chapters and a series of shorter case studies each focusing on a specific house object or project Key themes include Different types of historic house including the case of the composer or musician house what can be learned from museums and galleries about the use of sound and music and what may not transfer to the historic house setting Musical instruments as part of a wider collection questions of restoration and public use and the demands of particular collection types such as sheet music Musical objects and pieces of music as storytelling components and the use of music to affectively colour narratives or experiences This is a pioneering study that will appeal to all those interested in the intersection between Music and Museum and Heritage Studies It will also be of interest to scholars and researchers of Music History Popular Music Performance Studies and Material Culture

Topothesia Ameeth Vijay,2023-05-02 SHORTLISTED 2024 MSA FIRST BOOK PRIZE Topothesia reads urban planning as a mode of speculative fiction one inextricably linked to histories of British colonialism and liberalism through a particular understanding of place The book focuses on town planning from the late nineteenth century to the present day showing how the contemporary geography of Britain sharply unequal and marked by racial division continues ideologies of place established in colonial contexts Specifically planning allows for the speculative construction of future places that are both utopian in their ability to resolve political disagreement and at the same tantalizingly realizable able to be produced in concrete reality This speculative imaginary I argue is only possible within the ideological framework of colonialism and the history of empire within which it developed Topothesia refers to a rhetorical device employing the vivid depiction of an often imaginary place This device Vijay shows helps us understand urban planning as a narrative genre one that even in its most mundane documents is compelled to produce elaborate fantasies of future places The book examines specific planning movements over time to understand the form and the stakes of their speculative worlds In building these worlds the book shows planners continually coopted literary critiques of the present and reveries of the future retaining literature's aesthetics while eschewing its politics At the same time Vijay shows writers and artists have dwelled within and against these colonial imaginaries to seek other means of representing place
