Palmer, 2018-12-24 U S Trotskyism 1928 1965 Part III Resurgence Uneven and Combined Development is the third of a documentary trilogy on a revolutionary socialist split off from the U S Communist Party reflecting Leon Trotsky's confrontation with Stalinism in the global Communist movement Spanning 1954 to 1965 this volume surveys the Cold War era the civil rights and black liberation movements the third wave of feminism and other social and cultural developments of the 1950s and 1960s Documenting responses to a variety of anti colonial and revolutionary insurgencies the volume also surveys the crisis and decline of Stalinism Attention is given to internal debates and splits but also to the partial reunification of the international Trotskyist movement the Fourth International as well as substantial contributions to the study of history and the development of Marxist theory Scholars and activists will find much of interest in these primary sources Wars of Latin America, 1948-1982 René De La Pedraja, 2013-04-17 This book continues the narrative begun by the author in Wars of Latin America 1899 1941 It provides a clear and readable description of military combat occurring in Latin America from 1948 to the start of 1982 In an unusual peaceful lull Latin America experienced no wars from 1942 to 1947 Although the text concentrates on combat narrative matters of politics business and international relations appear as necessary to explain the wars The author draws on many previously unknown sources to provide information never before published The book traces the many insurgencies in Latin America as well as conventional wars Among the highlights are the chapters on the Cuban and Nicaraguan insurrections and on the Bay of Pigs invasion One goal of the text is to explain why of the many insurgencies appearing in Latin America only those in Cuba and Nicaragua were successful in overthrowing governments The book also helps explain why even unsuccessful insurgencies have survived for decades as has happened in Colombia and Peru Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Laundering Black Rage Too Black, Rasul A Mowatt, 2024-04-11 Laundering Black Rage The Washing of Black Death People Property and Profits is a spatial and historical critique of the capitalist State that examines how Black Rage conceived as a constructive and logical response to the conquest of resources land and human beings racialized as Black is cleaned for the unyielding means of White capital Interlacing political theory with international histories of Black rebellion it presents a thoughtful challenge to the counterinsurgent tactics of the State that consistently convert Black Rage into a commodity to be bought sold and repressed Laundering Black Rage investigates how the Rage directed at the police murder of George Floyd could be marshalled to funnel the Black Lives Matter movement into corporate advertising and questionable leadership while increasing the police budgets inside the laundry cities of capital largely with our consent Essayist Performer Too Black and Geographer Rasul A Mowatt assert Black Rage as a threat to the flow of capital and the established order of things which must therefore be managed by the process of laundering Intertwining stories of Black resistance throughout the African diaspora State building under capitalism cities as sites of laundering and the world making of empire Laundering Black Rage also lays the groundwork for upending the laundering process through an anti colonial struggle of reverse laundering conquest Relevant to studies of race and culture history politics and the built environment this pathbreaking work is essential reading for scholars and organizers enraged at capitalism and White supremacy laundering their work for nefarious means
