Fit for a President

What is the most famous building in your country? Is it a symbol that everyone can recognise? 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue is a very famous address in Washington, USA.

- 1 The White House is one of the most famous symbols of America. It is the home of the President and his family. It has got a long history stretching back over two centuries to the year 1800. It is like a museum with beautiful furniture and expensive artwork and it is open to the public.
- 2 This impressive building is very large. It has got 65 floors, 132 rooms, 30 bathrooms, 3 lifts and 8 staircases. A number of the rooms are offices including the world famous Oval Office. There is also a huge kitchen and the 5 chefs there can make dinner for up to 140 people at a time.
- 3 The White House has got some very beautiful gardens. They are over 18 acres of gardens and they have got a number of different species of plants and trees. There is even an organic garden for the First Family to use. There are also 2 fountains. One is in front of the building in the North Lawn and one in the private South Lawn at the back of the White House.
- 4 There are a variety of facilities for residents and guests to use. There is a cinema and a bowling alley to relax and have fun in. There is also a gym, a tennis court and a swimming pool to play in. And the White House is also green. It has got solar panels for its heated swimming pool.

Miles of Stare Michelle Kohler,2014-06-25 Miles of Stare explores the problem of nineteenth century American literary vision the strange conflation of visible reality and poetic language that emerges repeatedly in the metaphors and literary creations of American transcendentalists The strangeness of nineteenth century poetic vision is exemplified most famously by Emerson s transparent eyeball That disembodied omniscient seer is able to shed its body and transcend sight paradoxically in order to see not to create poetic language manifest on the American landscape In Miles of Stare Michelle Kohler explores the question of why given American transcendentalism s anti empiricism the movement s central trope becomes an eye purged of imagination And why furthermore she asks despite its insistent empiricism is this notorious eye also so decidedly not an eye What are the ethics of casting a boldly equivocal metaphor as the source of a national literature amidst a national landscape fraught with slavery genocide poverty and war Miles of Stare explores these questions first by tracing the historical emergence of the metaphor of poetic vision as the transcendentalists assimilated European precedents and wrestled with America s troubling rhetoric of manifest destiny and national identity These questions are central to the work of many nineteenth century authors writing in the wake of transcendentalism and Kohler offers examples from the writings of Douglass Hawthorne Dickinson Howells and Jewett that form a cascade of new visual metaphors that address the irreconcilable contradictions within the transcendentalist metaphor and pursue their own efforts to produce an American literature Douglass's doomed witness to slavery Hawthorne's reluctantly omniscient narrator and Dickinson's empty miles of Stare variously skewer the authority of Emerson's all-seeing poetic eyeball while attributing new authority to the limitations that mark their own literary gazes Tracing this metaphorical conflict across genres from the 1830s through the 1880s Miles of Stare illuminates the divergent contentious fates of American literary vision as nineteenth-century writers wrestle with the commanding conflation of vision and language that lies at the center of American transcendentalism and at the core of American national identity
