Children's Rights Law in the Global Human Rights Landscape Eva Brems, Ellen Desmet, Wouter

Vandenhoe, 2017-04-21 Children's rights law is often studied and perceived in isolation from the broader field of human rights law. This volume explores the inter-relationship between children's rights law and more general human rights law in order to see whether elements from each could successfully inform the other. Children's rights law has a number of distinctive characteristics such as the emphasis on the best interests of the child, the use of general principles and the inclusion of third parties (e.g. parents and other care takers) in treaty provisions. The first part of this book questions whether these features could be a source of inspiration for general human rights law. In part two the reverse question is asked: could children's rights law draw inspiration from developments in other branches of human rights law that focus on other specific categories of rights holders such as women, persons with disabilities, indigenous peoples or older persons? Finally, the interaction between children's rights law and human rights law and the potential for their isolation, inspiration or integration may be coloured or determined by the thematic issue under consideration. Therefore, the third part of the book studies the interplay between children's rights law and human rights law in the context of specific topics: intra-family relations, LGBTQI marginalization, migration, media, the environment and transnational human rights obligations. The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Policy Linda Miller, Claire Cameron, Carmen Dalli, Nancy Barbour, 2017-10-02 Recent authoritative evidence suggests that an estimated 200 million children under five fail to achieve their developmental potential due to factors including poor health and nutrition and the lack of stable, high quality care. A significant number of the world's children today lack the basic rights to health, development and protection. In light of such statistics, early childhood services for young children have expanded around the world. The SAGE Handbook of Early Childhood Policy draws critical attention to policy in Early Childhood Education and Care (ECEC), its relationship to service provision and its impact on the lives of children and families. The perspectives of leading academics and researchers from Europe, North America, South America, Africa, Australasia and Asia have been arranged around five key themes: Part 1: The Relationship Between Research, Policy And Practice; Country Case Studies; Part 2: Equitable Early Childhood Services; Intervention to Improve Children's Life Chances; Part 3: Extending Practice: The Role of Early Childhood Services in Family Support; Part 4: Participation, Rights and Diversity; Part 5: Future Directions for Early Childhood Policy. This handbook is essential reading for practitioners, stakeholders and others committed to working within early years services to achieve an awareness of policy and its implications for services and practice. A Children's Rights Assessment of Juvenile Detention in Australia Anita Mackay, 2024-09-16 Canvassing the socio-legal context for youth detention in Australia with a focus on international human rights law and legal frameworks within Australian states and territories, this book examines the recurring children's rights violations of recent years and puts forward strategies for reform. Providing a comprehensive national picture of juvenile detention legislation, policy and practices using a children's rights framework this book is a detailed synthesis of investigatory reports judicial decisions and inquiries by both Royal Commissions and parliamentary committee inquiries that together establish an evidence base for assessing the compliance of youth detention with Australia's international and domestic human rights obligations It also proposes nine pillars for reform to help Australia move towards children's rights compliance A Children's Rights Assessment of Juvenile Detention in Australia provides an invaluable resource for policy makers lawyers and criminologists as well as for students of law and criminology

Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa Anthony Tirado Chase, 2016-11-10 Recent events such as Iran's Green Revolution and the Arab Uprisings have exploded notions that human rights are irrelevant to Middle Eastern and North African politics Increasingly seen as a global concern human rights are at the fulcrum of the region s on the ground politics transnational intellectual debates and global political intersections The Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa emphasises the need to consider human rights in all their dimensions rather than solely focusing on the political dimension in order to understand the structural reasons behind the persistence of human rights violations explores the various frameworks in which to consider human rights conceptual political and transnational international discusses issue areas subject to particularly intense debate gender religion sexuality transitions and accountability contains contributions from perspectives that span from global theory to grassroots reflections emphasising the need for academic work on human rights to seriously engage with the thoughts and practices of those working on the ground A multidisciplinary approach from scholars with a wide range of expertise allows the book to capture the complex dynamics by which human rights have had or could have an impact on Middle Eastern and North African politics This book will therefore be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern and North African politics and society as well as anyone with a concern for Human Rights across the globe

Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts Jenny Parkes, 2015-03-27 This book is concerned with understanding the complex ways in which gender violence and poverty impact on young people s lives and the potential for education to challenge violence Although there has been a recent expansion of research on gender violence and schooling the field of research that brings together thinking on gender violence poverty and education is in its infancy This book sets out to establish this new field by offering innovative research insights into the nature of violence affecting children and young people the sources of violence including the relationship with poverty and inequality the effects of violence on young subjectivities and the educational challenge of how to counter violence Authors address three interrelated aims in their chapters to identify theoretical and methodological framings for understanding the relationship between gender violence poverty and education to demonstrate how young people living in varying contexts of poverty in the Global South learn about engage in respond to and resist gender violence to investigate how institutions including schools families communities governments international and non governmental organisations and the media constrain or expand possibilities to challenge gender violence in the Global South Describing a range of innovative research projects the chapters display what scholarly work can offer to help meet the educational challenge and to find ways to help young people and those around them to understand resist and rupture the many faces of violence Gender Violence in Poverty Contexts will appeal to an international audience of postgraduate students academics and researchers in the fields of international and comparative education gender and women s studies teacher education poverty development and conflict studies African and Asian studies and related disciplines It will also be of interest to professionals in NGOs and other organisations and policy makers keen to develop research informed practice Winner of the 2016 Jackie Kirk Outstanding Book Award

Violence Against Children Gertrud Lenzer, 2017-11-28 Violence Against Children adopts in its title the exhortation of Nobel Laureate Amartya Sen Making Human Rights Real which also represents the leitmotif of the book It examines the prevalence of violence against children in Africa the Asia Pacific Region Europe Latin America and the Caribbean and in the United States and explores major ways of its prevention Making human rights real engenders the challenge of helping all children to be free from violence and to lead a life replete with genuine nurture and the elimination of all violence Only in this manner will the goal of the United Nations 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development target 16.2 be achieved and the child as a rights bearing individual realized in her his fullness The specially commissioned chapters that make up the volume have been written by renowned scholars researchers and advocates They coalesce to provide an overview of the challenges facing children exposed to violence worldwide and they advance discussions of the measures which are available and necessary for the prevention of violence against children The book is intended for policy makers researchers and students of the social sciences and human rights who are interested in ending all the widespread maltreatment of children in our societies and our time

Offshore Madeline Gleeson, 2016-05-01 What has happened on Nauru and Manus since Australia began its most recent offshore processing regime in 2012 This essential book provides a comprehensive and uncompromising overview of the first three years of offshore processing since it recommenced in 2012 It explains why offshore processing was re-established what life is like for asylum seekers and refugees on Nauru and Manus what asylum seekers refugees and staff in the offshore detention centres have to say about what goes on there and why the truth has been so hard to find In doing so it goes behind the rumours and allegations to reveal what is known and what still is not known about Australia's offshore detention centres

Statelessness in the Caribbean Kristy A. Belton,2017-10-10 Statelessness in the Caribbean demonstrates how people can be forcibly displaced under nonconflict conditions without having fled a home and how democracies force people into statelessness the condition of not being a citizen anywhere through the cover of bureaucratic procedures neutral laws and sovereign claims to determine membership

The ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights Robin Ramcharan,2025-03-31 This book systematically documents the practice of the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights AICHR on the protection of human rights It provides a template of universal standards spanning prevention response and mitigation and redress and remedies from which to gauge the performance of the AICHR The evidence points to a Commission that leaves much to be desired and whose protective function needs significant improvement Nevertheless the National Representatives of Member States to the AICHR have taken important and positive steps that lay the groundwork for a more protection oriented Commission The work offers avenues for the National Representatives the ASEAN Member States and civil society to enhance the protection function of the AICHR and to thus more closely align it with hard won international standards and best practices The book will be of interest to representatives of the AICHR human rights practitioners ASEAN policymakers and academics students researchers and policymakers in the areas of international relations human rights law and Asian studies

Climate change justice and human rights: An African perspective Ademola Oluborode Jegede,Oluwatoyin Adejonwo,2023-01-16

Populations in Africa are vulnerable to both the direct and indirect adverse effects of climate change that are of human rights significance The urgency for states in Africa to implement climate interventions while they face developmental challenges however raises questions of justice or fairness between the developed and the developing states Consequently interrogating how the human rights paradigm may respond to negative implications of climate change and its fairness is important as states continue to engage with the climate change standard setting This edited volume critically interrogates human rights paradigm as an intervention to secure climate change justice for vulnerable populations analyses regional protection against human rights consequences of climate change and assesses emerging interventions based on domestic regulatory frameworks on climate change in selected states in Africa

The Oxford Handbook of U.S. Education Law Kristi L. Bowman,2021 The Oxford Handbook of U S Education Law includes more than three dozen chapters by leading education law and policy scholars It presents a comprehensive description of the law that regulates public K 12 education today and suggests legal and policy changes for the next decade Chapters cover a wide variety of topics including virtual schooling civil rights student privacy and safety education federalism school choice and special education The Handbook is an essential guide for anyone interested in the law and policy that shapes K 12 education in the United States Human Dignity in International Law Ginevra Le Moli,2021-11-25 A theoretical historical and juridical exegesis of human dignity in international law over two centuries Understanding Domestic Violence as a Gender-based Human Rights Violation Jurgita Bukauskaite,2023-04-14 Examining the prevalent issue of domestic violence this book breaks down the reasons behind the ineffectiveness of existing human rights instruments and the gaps in current legal systems failing those in need Through a variety of key case studies it reveals significant gaps in the legal conceptualisation of domestic violence between human rights standards on the one hand and the national legal systems examined those of Ireland and Lithuania on the other The book reveals that contrary to gender based universal human rights approaches and despite recent legislative reforms the legal concept of domestic violence is gender blind It fails to capture gender based empirical realities on the ground rendering national legal systems devoid of an empirically informed theoretical basis for addressing the problem Despite the differences in the contextual backgrounds of the two case study countries the legislation on domestic violence is underpinned by patriarchal beliefs in both This book employs a gender based examination of the issue that will be of key interest to scholars legal practitioners civil society actors and students of feminist legal theory gender equality gender in international law gender and human rights and conceptual democracy
