Parenting Across the Life Span Linda E. Powers, 2018-11-16 Parenting takes many twists and turns as we invest our energy into nurturing others. There will be wonderful surprises and proud moments interspersed with times of intense worry, sadness, frustration, and disappointment. Linda E. Powers, who raised three daughters and is a child and adolescent psychotherapist, educator, and former pediatric nurse, helps parents make sense of it all in this guide for helping children of all ages from infancy into adulthood. She outlines theories of social and emotional development, the importance of mental health during pregnancy, how heredity and environment contribute to temperament, how to improve a toddler's speech through verbal interactions, the power of play and pretend, ways to help children understand right versus wrong, and how to navigate interactions with adult children. Parenting can be a more positive experience if we understand the developmental process, have good communication tools, and use effective strategies to manage stress while spending quality time with our families. Get meaningful insights to nurture future generations as well as yourself with the guidance in Parenting across the Lifespan.

Clinical Case Formulations Barbara Lichner Ingram, 2011-11-01 Praise for Clinical Case Formulations: Matching the Integrative Treatment Plan to the Client, Second Edition: Barbara Ingram has put a career into the development of this book, and it is wonderful. My students love that it was written with them in mind, and they love the statements designed to reduce anxiety and normalize the learning process. This is an excellent book. Amy M. Rees, Turyn, PhD, Associate Professor of Counseling Psychology, Lewis Clark College. A step-by-step model for individualized case conceptualization. Fully revised and updated, the second edition of Clinical Case Formulations provides step-by-step tools and insightful guidance for moving from first contact with a client to the development of an effective, personalized treatment plan. Addressing the essential question every therapist faces: How do I create a treatment plan that is the best match for my client? This unique resource provides a systematic and thoughtful method for integrating ideas, skills, and techniques from different theoretical approaches. It combines empirical research and clinical experience to create a case formulation that is tailor-made for the client. This comprehensive resource offers two tools to guide case formulations: a problem-oriented framework with a list of 28 standards for evaluating its application, and a set of 30 core clinical hypotheses derived from the knowledge bases of psychology.

psychiatry counseling and social work professions The new edition includes Hypotheses on Emotional Focus Trauma and Metacognitive Perspective More detailed attention given to empirically supported therapies such as Dialectical Behavior Therapy DBT and Acceptance and Commitment Therapy ACT Discussion on the importance of bringing cultural competence to case formulation tasks with every client Skill building activities throughout the text Offering a thorough framework to help clients experience effective clinical service practitioners will learn to conceptualize clients needs in ways that lead to strong and individualized treatment plans as well as advice and guidance on what to do when selected interventions fail to produce the expected benefits
