Distortion Korn and Mew Beinhorn's unique methods and perspective applied to record producing and music making in the studio opens the door to successful collaborative efforts. The author shows you how to find what he calls your sensory connection to the creativity process which ultimately helps you find the intent behind your creative choices. You can read dozens of articles and books that feature a hundred different people talking about what microphones they used when they recorded Record X or how they set their stereo buss compressor but you will never find out what prompted them to make these choices. Beinhorn's focus on collaborative effort enables record producers and artists to find solutions while working as a creative team. This perspective is especially valuable as it is transdisciplinary and can be applied to many occupations and modes of creativity outside of record production.
