Humanae Vitae, 50 Years Later Theresa Notare, 2019-06-28 In the life of the Catholic Church the papal encyclical Humanae vitae represents a deepening of understanding regarding the nature of married love and the transmission of life. Despite fifty years 1968-2018 since its promulgation many Catholics have yet to discover the treasure of these rich teachings. This volume therefore seeks to elucidate the encyclical's reaffirmation of the divine plan. It does this in a unique way by providing essays from experts of various disciplines that include history, theology, science, medicine, law, and governmental policy. The occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of Humanae vitae offers a teaching moment. In this compendium experts representing a variety of disciplines including history, culture, theology, medicine, law, and psychology present their reflections upon God's divine plan as described in Humanae vitae. The authors first presented this work in an abbreviated form at a symposium held at The Catholic University of America April 4-6, 2018. Here their presentations are substantively developed and hopefully will encourage further scholarly work. Ultimately their purpose is to help the reader arrive at a more positive understanding of the teachings found in Humanae vitae. Although designed for the educated reader, the essays presume that when the teachings of Humanae vitae are embraced by men and women, they can contribute to the healing of the wounds of a world broken by sin but redeemed by Christ.

Practical Pension Scheme Accounting Philip Briggs, Shona Harvie, Joanne Scriven, Phil Spary, 2016-01-28 Pension Scheme Accounting and Audit provides guidance on the preparation of pension scheme financial statements and the audit of those statements. Pensions Scheme accounts are prepared in line with guidelines issued within the Pensions Scheme Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) which is drawn up by the Pensions Research Accountants Group (PRAG). The guidelines within SORPs are not mandatory but they are recommended practice and organisations deviating from these guidelines may be required to explain why. The last SORP was issued in 2007 and is currently being revised in line with the changes brought about by the introduction of FRS 102 which has a mandatory adoption date of January 1, 2015. Pension Scheme Accounting and Audit provides guidance on application of the revised SORP in the preparation of financial statements and will also be invaluable to auditors of those accounts, highlighting the key areas of change and including worked examples and sample extracts from accounts to help illustrate the points made. In particular, the book will help those dealing with pension scheme accounts to understand and deal with the following: Classification of investments, Fair value determination, New investment risk disclosures, Additional disclosures on actuarial liabilities. Covers the following legislation and regulation: Pensions SORP, FRS 102, APB Practice Note 15, Pensions Act. Contents: Background to pension scheme accounts, History, Parties involved, Types of scheme, Pension Scheme accounts, The Fund account, Contributions, Transfers, Other income, Benefits, Payments in respect of leavers, Other payments, Administration expenses, Taxation, Investments, Investment income, Investments, Current assets, Current liabilities, Other information accompanying the financial statements, Trustee Report, Investment Report, Summary of Contributions, Audit Reports, Compliance Statement.

Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska, 2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy

Wash and Pray: African Theological Discourse on COVID-19 Harvey Kwiyani, Joseph Ola, Isaiah Ola Abolarin, Benjamin Isola Akano, Justice A. Arthur, Victoria Oyenike Ayano, Paul Ayokunle, Kwaku Boamah, Akarama Dan Jr, Edmore Dube, Eric Manu, Françoise Niyonsaba, Godfred Nsiah, Moses Iliya Ogidis, Gabriel Ademola Oyeniyi, Ruth M. Oyeniyi, In the wake of the global COVID 19 pandemic Africa faced a unique set of challenges that sparked a profound spiritual response among its people Wash and Pray African Theological Discourse on COVID 19 delves into the heart of this response exploring the intersections of faith culture history and the pandemic that gripped the world from 2019 to 2022 The book demonstrates that for many Africans the pandemic was not just a medical crisis but also a spiritual battle As such the book invites the reader to witness the historicising of the pandemic in Africa through this landmark resource for current and future generations ensuring that the narratives of African Christianity in the face of COVID 19 and other pandemics are not lost The chapter contributions offer diverse perspectives from Ghana Nigeria Rwanda Zimbabwe and the UK each contextualising the African Christian response to the pandemic In essence this monograph paints a rich tapestry of African theological discourse during a global crisis ultimately affirming that faith and science when harmonised can lead to a resilient and thriving community

Maternal Sentencing and the Rights of the Child Shona Minson, 2019-12-24 This book brings to life the experiences of children affected by maternal imprisonment and provides unique in depth analysis of judicial thinking on this issue It explores the experiences of children whose mothers are sentenced to imprisonment in England and Wales and contrasts their state sanctioned separation from their mothers in the criminal courts where the court may not even be aware of the existence of a child to the state sanctioned separation of children from their parents in the family courts where the child has legal representation and their best interests are the court's paramount consideration Drawing on detailed empirical research with children caregivers and Crown Court judiciary Maternal Sentencing and the Rights of the Child brings together relevant literature on law criminology and human rights to provide insight into the reasons for the differentiated treatment and its implications for children their caregivers and wider society

Restless Infections Jay Pather, 2025-06 Restless Infections is a collection of critical essays exploring artistic interventions in urban spaces focusing on place making and the politics of space in South Africa The writers examine seminal artworks by South African artists addressing diverse forms of expression such as site specific performances immersive installations film photography and online performances The book is divided into three sections The Restless City Public Art for Multiple Publics and Land Home Belonging It introduces new perspectives on public sphere performance such as Khanyisile Mbongwa's reimagining of township alleyways for public encounters and Mbongeni Mtshali's study of everyday performances that challenge colonial and neo colonial spatial organization The title Restless Infections is derived from the popular Infecting the City public art festival symbolizing the persistent state of restlessness in a city still grappling with the legacies of colonialism inequality and racial segregation This restlessness is tied to a desire for economic and political stability expressed through transient art forms like Santu Mofokeng's billboard photography The book shifts the focus of public art discourse in South Africa from static forms like monuments and statues to dynamic temporary interventions that question the concept of publicness These interventions engage with protest public intimacy audience interaction and the disrupted topography of apartheid cities As the first scholarly volume to read public spheres through a multi and interdisciplinary lens Restless Infections argues that the diverse artistic modes explored are essential to understanding the complexities of publicness in South Africa RELIGIOUS SYNCRETISM IN AFRICAN CHRISTIANITY ISIAH

OLUWAJEMIRIYE OLATOYAN, 2024-04-18 Christianity among the African people whether on the soil of Africa or in diaspora is perceived and defined differently by different people For instance among African traditional religious people and Muslims Christianity is a foreign religion that must not be allowed to thrive in Africa To several Africans who profess Jesus Christianity is good but it is not adequate and effective enough to handle all human needs Still among some Western Christians and missionaries African Christianity is superficial and lacks total commitment to Christ Of course the Africans are a cultural people with profound religious inclinations Their traditional religion ATR has tremendously shaped their worldviews and socioeconomic and political activities Consequently when traditional Africans are converted to Christianity they do not break ties with their traditional religions completely The examination of relevant biblical texts on syncretism however reveals that God condemns the worship of many gods and places a curse on anyone who offers sacrifices to carved images and bows to them in worship Therefore this work investigates the root cause of religious syncretism among African people In the attempt to find answers to why the average African Christian finds it difficult if not impossible to abandon his her traditional religious belief systems completely to embrace Christianity the author concludes that unless the issues surrounding the African forgotten and secret covenants are exposed and decisively addressed in the light of biblical teaching syncretism will continue to be a stigma on the fabric of African Christianity Therefore to overcome the threats of syncretism in African Christianity there is a need to establish a sound theological and missiological framework that can address the problems associated with the African worldviews and belief systems This task must be carried out under the searchlight of Scriptures Creed without Chaos Laura K. Simmons, 2015-10-26 Introduces contemporary readers to the lay theological writings of British novelist and playwright Dorothy L Sayers

Civil Society and the Party-state in Zimbabwe ZENZO MOYO, 2024-08-21 The book utilises Gramsci's concepts of hegemony counter hegemony organic intellectuals and integral state to interrogate how modes of engagement between the state and civil society have contributed to a polarised polity in Zimbabwe and in turn how this has impacted democratisation processes This was achieved by analysing intra civil society interactions and state civil society relations which established deep polarised relationships that can be traced back to the liberation struggle It also interrogates ideologies that drive these polarised relations and how together with material benefits from donors and the party state these relations impact ordinary people's modes of existence One of the arguments that emerge from the book is that political polarisation in Zimbabwe has now morphed into an established political culture that has played a huge role in the retardation of democratic struggles It uses ideas of entangled modernities and travelling theory to cast doubt on the belief that civil society is the missing key in the democratisation of developing countries Lobola (Bridewealth) in Contemporary Southern Africa Lovemore Togarasei, Ezra Chitando, 2021-02-03 This volume explores the multiple meanings and implications of lobola in Southern Africa The payment of lobola often controversially translated as bridewealth is an entrenched practice in most societies in Southern Africa Although having a long tradition of late there have been voices questioning its relevance in contemporary times while others vehemently defend the practice This book brings together a range of scholars from different academic disciplines national contexts institutions genders and ethnic backgrounds to debate the relevance of lobola in contemporary southern African communities for gender equality

Shaping Sound and Society Stephen Cottrell, 2023-09-13 This volume brings together leading voices from the new wave of research on musical instruments to consider how we can connect the material aspects of instruments with their social function approaches that have been otherwise too frequently separated in musical scholarship Shaping Sound and Society The Cultural Study of Musical Instruments locates the instruments at the centre of cultural interactions With contributions from ten scholars spanning a variety of methodologies and a wide range of both contemporary and historic music cultures the volume is divided into three sections Contributors discuss the relationships between makers performers and their local communities the different meanings that instruments accrue as they travel over time and place and the manner in which instruments throw new light on historic music cultures Alongside the scholarly chapters the volume also includes a selection of shorter interludes based on interviews with makers of comparatively new instruments offering further insights into the process of musical instrument innovation An essential read for students and academics in the fields of music and ethnomusicology this volume will also interest anyone looking to understand how the cultural interaction of musical instruments is deeply informed and influenced by social technological and cultural change Called to Teach Christopher J. Richmann, J. Lenore Wright, 2020-08-04 The call to teach means different things to different people This collection contends however that at the very least faithful work in the teaching vocation involves excellence commitment and community Representing diverse disciplines and institutional perspectives from a Christian research university the contributors present reflections based on personal experience empirical data and theoretical models This wide ranging collection offers insight encouragement and a challenge to teachers in all areas of Christian higher education Building upon the legacy of thoughtful teaching at Baylor University while looking toward the future of higher education this collection is framed for Christians who teach in higher education but who are also committed to research and graduate training Pedagogies for the Post-Anthropocene Esther Priyadharshini, 2021-11-25 This book draws on posthumanist critique and post qualitative approaches to research to examine the pedagogies offered by imaginaries of the future Starting with the question of how education can be a process for imagining and desiring better futures that can shorten the Anthropocene it speaks to concerns that are relevant to the fields of education youth and futures studies This book explores lessons from the imaginaries of apocalypse revolution and utopia drawing on research from youth ful perspectives in a context when the narrative of youth despair about the future is becoming persistent It investigates how the imaginary of Apocalypse acts as a frame of intelligibility a way of making sense of the monstrosities of the present and also instigates desires to act in different ways Studying the School Climate Strikes of 2019 as Revolution moves us away from the teleologies of capitalist consumption and endless growth to newer aesthetics The strikes function as a public pedagogy that creates new publics that include life beyond the human Finally the book explores how the Utopias of Afrofuturist fiction provides us with a kind of investable utopia because the starting point is in racial economic and ecological injustice If the Apocalypse teaches us to recognize what needs to go and Revolution accepts that living with less than is necessary then this kind of Utopia shows us how becoming more than human may be the future
