Jw Internatuonal Not 2014:

Jehovah's Witnesses in Europe Gerhard Besier, Katarzyna Stokłosa, 2021-08-18 The history of Jehovah's Witnesses in Europe has always been one of persecution. This third volume documents this history turning eastward. For the first time the circumstances of a religious minority under different political systems can be compared across the continent. The studies gathered here provide insight into the methods of repression used by governments and mainstream churches, the survival strategies of Jehovah's Witnesses and their various experiences under Eastern European dictatorships. The initially cordial relationship with Jehovah's Witnesses that developed after 1990 has steadily reverted to religious discrimination, culminating in Russia's renewed ban of Jehovah's Witnesses in 2017 and the confiscation of their properties. By violating the universal human right of religious freedom, the same conditions that prevailed in the Soviet era have now returned to modern Russia. With severest discrimination and abusing jurisdictional procedures to reach their political aspirations, the State tries to crush a religious community. Against this background, it is all the more important not to turn a blind eye to the situation of religious minorities in Eastern Europe but instead to take an honest public stance against it. Intelligent Decision Technologies

2019 Ireneusz Czarnowski, Robert J. Howlett, Lakhmi C. Jain, 2019-07-16 The book presents a collection of peer-reviewed articles from the 11th KES International Conference on Intelligent Decision Technologies (KES IDT 19) held in Malta on 17-19 June 2019. The conference provided opportunities for the presentation of new research results and discussion about them. It was also an opportunity for the generation of new ideas in the field of intelligent decision making. The range of topics explored is wide and covers methods of classification, prediction, data analysis, decision support, modelling, and many more in such areas as finance, cybersecurity, economy, health management, and transportation. The topics cover also problems of data science, signal processing, and knowledge engineering. Water Law Joseph W. Dellapenna, Joyeeta Gupta, 2021-08-31 This volume of the Elgar Encyclopedia of Environmental Law provides thorough and detailed coverage of the changing meanings and roles of water law from the local to the global. It examines the rules of ownership, rights of use, and dispute resolution that address access, allocation, and protection of water resources. Written by leading scholars and practitioners from across the globe, this authoritative volume will be a vital resource for all scholars and students of environmental law.

International Parental Child Abduction and the Law Geraldine Carney, 2024-06-13 Japan has faced widespread scrutiny for failing to properly address international parental child abduction involving its citizens This book examines how and why Japan has come to have this tarnished image its response and how it might manage these disputes in the future In particular the book explores how Japan engages with international legal frameworks to manage international parental child abduction and what this means in reality for Japanese people and others who come under its wide umbrella A focus of this examination is how the key international treaty the Hague Convention of 25 October 1980 on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction has fared since being introduced in Japan in 2014 Case studies of parental child abduction involving Japan are used throughout to illustrate the legal and social concepts discussed in the book The struggles of both abducting and left behind parents across fluid international borders reveal seismic social and philosophical shifts in Japan that continue to shape its legal landscape This book will be a useful resource for students of Japanese Studies Sociolegal Studies Comparative Law and International Law Mutual Intercultural Relations John W. Berry, 2017-10-26 By examining intercultural relations in seventeen societies this book answers the fundamental question how shall we all live together Democracy and Civil Society in a Global Era Scott Nicholas Romaniuk, Marguerite Marlin, 2016-03-31 Democracy and Civil Society in a Global Era addresses challenges to the strengthening of active citizenship In this highly structured work the themes presented are linked to fostering a culture of peace and non violence the lessening of fear and insecurity in political economic social and cultural terms inherently detached from the conceptualization of political delineations and physical boundaries and the ability to live dignified lives The various regions that are represented in the case studies include the Indian sub continent Malaysia Indonesia Turkey Iran China the Middle East Nigeria and the EU The commonality and universality of the topics allows readers from any region of the world to relate to them This book presents a dynamic combination of theory and field research and is an iconoclastic tour de force of studies in democracy Policy makers think tanks and development practitioners may be particularly be interested in this book because it is about action rather than mere ideas and processes It demonstrates how social movements can introduce and strengthen equality inclusion accountability and the free flow of information These elements in turn can contribute to the acculturation of freedom and social justice in the developed world just as much as in the developing world Transforming Global Health Partnerships Anna Stewart Ibarra, A. Desiree LaBeaud, 2024-12-31 This is a book about the human experience of conducting global health research linked to operational responses to the control and prevention of diseases worldwide Rather than a manual or how to guide we propose a roadmap and vision of equitable sustainable and impactful partnerships shared through a rich interweaving of voices North and South academics and community practitioners senior mentors and trainees multiple generations and multiple disciplines We focus on the stories that need to be told the successes and the failures and visions for a healthier and more compassionate future for humanity This book was written by more than 90 authors from 26 countries bringing diverse perspectives on global health partnerships past present and future Although many of the chapters use examples related to infectious diseases the ideas in this book are relevant to the broader field of global health research and practice This book is organized into three sections broadly related to foundational concepts present experiences case studies and future visions The first section focuses on the historical colonial legacy of global health and the foundations needed for equitable partnerships introducing key themes explored throughout the book These include concepts related to decolonization ethics gender systems approaches and transdisciplinary science Planetary Health One Health team science and communication The book s second section draws on case studies of global health partnerships to understand where we are today in global health Authors share their experiences responding to global health threats including disease outbreaks refugee health stigma and sexually transmitted diseases and post disaster community recovery The book s third section articulates a new vision for global health partnerships to co create a more peaceful equitable and loving world This vision is urgently needed to address the challenges
