

Henry's Aims as King

After Henry's coronation in 1509, he set out some clear aims as the new King of England. Many of these represented his strong character. Explain why you think he wanted to achieve each of the aims below. What does each aim tell us about his personality and leadership style?

1. Henry wanted full control over all decisions which he would then dictate to his ministers to carry out.

2. Henry wanted to achieve 'glorious' victories in battles abroad to make England a major force in Europe.

3. Henry wanted to attract great leaders, artists and scholars to his royal court. To surround himself with greatness.

4. Henry wanted to create a magnificent royal court which put on grand banquets & lavish entertainment for foreign leaders.

5. Henry wanted to continue his full commitment to the Catholic Church.

6. Henry wanted a male heir to the throne to continue to Tudor reign.

7. Henry wanted to win back lands from France which had been lost in previous wars.

8. Henry wanted a strong government which was strict on law and order.
