increasingly prominent in the current and next generation in the globalised higher education contexts      Knowledge and Music Education Graham J. McPhail, 2022-08-05 Knowledge and Music Education A Social Realist Account explores current challenges for music education in relation to wider philosophical and political debates and seeks to find a way forward for the field by rethinking the nature and value of epistemic knowledge in the wake of postmodern critiques Focusing on secondary school music and considering changes in approaches to teaching over time this book seeks to understand the forces at play that enhance or undermine music's contribution to a socially just curriculum for all The author argues that the unique nature of disciplinary derived knowledge provides students with essential cognitive development and must be integrated with the turn to more inclusive student centred and culturally responsive teaching Connecting theoretical issues with concrete curriculum design the book considers how we can give music students the benefits of specialised subject knowledge without returning to a traditional past      Comics and Migration Ralf Kauranen, Olli Löytty, Aura Nikkilä, Anna Vuorinne, 2023-03-31 Comics and human mobility have a long history of connections This volume explores these entanglements with a focus on both how comics represent migration and what applied uses comics have in relation to migration The volume examines both individual works of comic art and examples of practical applications of comics from across the world Comics are well suited to create understanding highlight truthful information and engender empathy in their audiences but are also an art form that is preconditioned or even limited by its representational and practical conventions Through analyses of various practices and representations this book questions the uncritical belief in the capacity of comics assesses their potential to represent stories of exile and immigration with compassion and discusses how xenophobia and nationalism are both reinforced and questioned in comics The book includes essays by both researchers and practitioners such as activists and journalists whose work has combined a focus on comics and migration It predominantly scrutinises comics and activities from more peripheral areas such as the Nordic region the German language countries Latin America and southern Asia to analyse the treatment and visual representation of migration in these regions This topical and engaging volume in the Global Perspectives in Comics Studies series will be of interest to researchers and students of comics studies literary studies visual art studies cultural studies migration and sociology It will also be useful reading for a wider academic audience interested in discourses around global migration and comics traditions      TESOL and Sustainability Jason Goulah, John Katunich, 2020-05-14 In the burgeoning field of ecolinguistics little attention has been given to the ways in which English language teaching is and has become implicated in global ecological crises This book begins a dialogue about the opportunities and responsibilities presented to the TESOL field to re-orient professional practice in ways that drive cultural change and engender alternate language practices and metaphors Covering a diverse range of topics including anthropogenic climate change habitat loss food insecurity and mass migration chapters argue that such crises require not only technological innovation but also cultural changes in how human beings relate to each other and their environment Arguing that it is incumbent upon the field of

English language teaching to reckon with such cultural changes in how and what we teach TESOL and Sustainability addresses the ways in which discourses such as eco pedagogy the critique of neo liberalism non Western philosophy and post humanist thought can and must inform how and what is taught in ESL and EFL classrooms Integrating RegTech Solutions for Industry 4.0 Gupta, Swati, Gupta, Smita, Gopalakrishnan, Badri Narayanan, 2024-07-22 Regulatory compliance and risk management pose significant challenges in today's rapidly evolving financial landscape Integrating Industry 4.0 technologies such as automation AI and machine learning has added complexity to these challenges Financial institutions need help to keep pace with regulatory changes and technological advancements leading to inefficiencies and increased compliance costs Integrating RegTech Solutions for Industry 4.0 provides a comprehensive solution to this problem by offering insights into how regtech can help financial institutions navigate these challenges effectively Through a series of case studies this book demonstrates how leading financial institutions have successfully implemented regtech solutions to streamline compliance processes and manage risks efficiently By showcasing real world applications the book offers practical strategies and best practices for integrating regtech into financial operations Furthermore the book explores the regulatory implications of Industry 4.0 technologies such as IoT and blockchain providing readers with a holistic view of the regulatory landscape Developing Game Sense in Physical Education and Sport Ray Breed, Michael Spittle, 2021 Developing Game Sense in Physical Education and Sport provides coaches and teachers with practical instructions to help learners develop the skills and understanding they need to effectively play games and sports It offers instruction in invasion games striking and fielding games and net and wall games Teaching Contemporary Art With Young People Julia Marshall, Connie Stewart, Anne Thulson, 2021 This practical resource will help educators teach about current art and integrate its philosophy and methods into the K-12 classroom The authors provide a framework that looks at art through the lens of nine themes everyday life work power earth space and place self and others change and time inheritance and visual culture highlighting the conceptual aspects of art and connecting disparate forms of expression They also provide guidelines and examples for how to use contemporary art to change the dynamics of a classroom apply inventive non-linear lenses to topics broaden and update the art canon and spur creative and critical thinking Young people will find the selected artwork accessible and relevant to their lives diverse and expansive probing serious and funny Challenging conventional notions of what should be considered art and how it should be created this book offers a sampling of what is out there to inspire educators and students to explore the limitless world of new art Book Features Indicators and lenses that make contemporary art more familiar accessible understandable and useable for teachers Easy to reference descriptions and images from a variety of contemporary artists Strategies for integrating art thinking across the curriculum Suggestions to help teachers find contemporary art to fit their curriculum and school settings Concrete examples of art-based projects from both art and general classrooms Guidance for developing curriculum including how to create guiding questions to spur student thinking

Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development in Emerging Economies Roopinder Oberoi, Dharendra K. Vajpeyi, 2015-12-24 Corporate Social Responsibility and Sustainable Development in Emerging Economies is an anthology of seven case studies plus two theoretical chapters in a comparative context. It analyzes issues related to the rise of multinational corporations, their immense economic and political influence in a globalized world, and their social responsibility, corporate citizenship. Corporate social responsibility is closely examined in terms of meeting the challenges of the widening gap between rich and poor, relationships with sovereign states, environmental degradation, exploitation of natural resources, labor practices, and human rights issues in societies in which multinational corporations operate. Are these corporations exempt from social roles and accountable to only their shareholders, the minimalist position propounded by economists such as Milton Friedman, or do they also have ethical and social responsibilities to participate in improving the quality of human lives in impoverished societies in Africa, Asia, and Latin America? Brick by Brick Kjell Fenn, 2024-09-10 New or inexperienced teachers enter classrooms brimming with passion but often face challenges in engaging students, managing behavior, and developing effective lessons. Using research-supported strategies, author Kjell Fenn guides new teachers through four pillars of successful teaching: planning, structure, engagement, and confidence. Learn how to design assessments, craft lesson plans, and find the structure for students and teachers to experience joy in the classroom. K-12 new and beginning teachers will explore the dynamics of student engagement with sixteen strategies to promote interest, bolster confidence through structured classroom routines, create lessons that engage students while satisfying standards and objectives, design quality assessments, and plan units with confidence. Collect data on their classroom management and continuously refine their teaching methods. Contents: Introduction, Chapter 1: Behavior and Motivation, Chapter 2: Planning, Chapter 3: Structure, Chapter 4: Engagement, Chapter 5: Confidence, Chapter 6: Grow and Share, Epilogue, References, and Resources, Index. Musical Variation Carlos de Lemos Almada, 2023-07-14 This book offers an in-depth analysis of musical variation through a systematic approach heavily influenced by the principles of Grundgestalt and developed variations both created by the Austrian composer Arnold Schoenberg (1874-1951). The author introduces a new transformational derivative model and the theory that supports it, specifically crafted for the examination of tonal music. The idea for this book emerged during a sabbatical at Columbia University, while the content is the product of extensive research conducted at the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro, resulting in the development of the Model of Derivative Analysis. This model places emphasis on the connections between musical entities rather than viewing them as separate entities. As a case study, the Intermezzo in A Major, Op. 118, No. 2 by Brahms is selected for analysis. The author's goal is to provide a formal and structured approach while maintaining the text's readability and appeal for both musicians and mathematicians in the field of music theory. The book concludes with the author's recommendations for further research. Handbook of Research on Cultivating Literacy in Diverse and Multilingual Classrooms Neokleous, Georgios, Krulatz, Anna, Farrelly, Raichle, 2020-03-27 Literacy has traditionally been associated with the linguistic and functional ability to read and write. Although literacy as a fundamental issue in education has received abundant attention in the last few decades, most publications to date have focused on monolingual classrooms. Language teacher educators have a responsibility to prepare teachers to be culturally responsive and flexible so they can adapt to the range of settings and variety of learners they will encounter in their careers while also bravely questioning the assumptions they are encountering about multilingual literacy development and instruction. The Handbook of Research on Cultivating Literacy in Diverse and Multilingual Classrooms is an essential scholarly publication that explores the multifaceted nature of literacy development across the lifespan in a range of multilingual contexts. Recognizing that literacy instruction in contemporary language classrooms serving diverse student populations must go beyond developing reading and writing abilities, this book sets out to explore a wide range of literacy dimensions. It offers unique perspectives through a critical reflection on issues related to power, ownership, identity, and the social construction of literacy in multilingual societies. As a resource for use in language teacher preparation programs globally, this book will provide a range of theoretical and practical perspectives while creating space for pre- and in-service teachers to grapple with the ideas in light of their respective contexts. The book will also provide valuable insights to instructional designers, curriculum developers, linguists, professionals, academicians, administrators, researchers, and students.

Resilience Interventions for Youth in Diverse Populations Sandra Prince-Embury, Donald H. Saklofske, 2014-05-09 Our uncertain times are hard enough for adults to navigate. For all too many young people, even many who appear to possess good coping skills, the challenges may seem overwhelming. More and more, resilience stands as an integral component in prevention programs geared to children and adolescents, whether at risk or not. Resilience Interventions for Youth in Diverse Populations details successful programs used with children and teens in a wide range of circumstances and conditions, both clinical and non-clinical. New strength-based models clarify the core aspects of resilience and translate them into positive social, health, educational, and emotional outcomes. Program descriptions and case examples cover diverse groups from homeless preschoolers to transgender youth to children with autism spectrum disorders, while interventions are carried out in settings as varied as the classroom and the clinic, the parent group, and the playground. This unique collection of studies moves the field toward more consistent and developmentally appropriate application of the science of resilience building. Among the empirically supported programs featured: Promoting resilience in the foster care system; Developing social competence through a resilience model; Building resilience in young children: the Sesame Street way; School-based intervention for resilience in ADHD girls; Leading Outward: promoting resilience in at-risk middle school girls; Resiliency in youth who have been exposed to violence. Resilience Interventions for Youth in Diverse Populations is an essential resource for researchers, professionals, practitioners, and graduate students in clinical child and school psychology, social work, educational psychology, child and adolescent psychiatry, developmental psychology, and pediatrics.
