

The background of the book cover is a photograph of the interior of a grand Baroque church. The view is from the entrance looking towards the altar. A large, dark dome with intricate frescoes of figures and clouds dominates the upper half of the image. Below the dome, a series of arched windows with dark frames and multiple panes allow light into the space. The walls are covered in ornate carvings and statues. The floor is made of large stone tiles. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and religious artistry.
