Demonstrating Your Competence Gill Wakley, Ruth Chambers, Clare Gerada, 2005 This volume focusing on dermatology is part of a survey of health care needs for specific conditions published on behalf of the Department of Health This study overall considers questions such as the population's needs the services available or unavailable to them the effectiveness of these services and other perspectives in disease and service areas This is the second series of needs assessment reviews

The Good Appraisal Toolkit for Primary Care Ruth Chambers, 2004 This volume helps all healthcare professionals to prepare for annual appraisals which are expected for all staff in the NHS and mandatory for doctors It enables those appraising others and those being appraised and will help to improve the quality of patient care and clinical standards through encouraging individual development

The Lecturer's Toolkit Philip Race, 2001 Designed as a primary resource for all teachers in higher education this fully photocopiable guide includes coverage of small group teaching assessment techniques using student feedback developing your career and refreshment tips The A4 ring binder includes pro formas work sheets digests of tips and integrated overview sections for staff developers

The Appraiser's Handbook Nick Lyons, Susanne Caesar, Abayomi McEwen, 2018-04-19 This book contains a foreword by Maurice Conlon Associate Director Appraisal and Revalidation Lead NHS Clinical Governance Support Team This is an invaluable detailed guide offering practical resources for medical professionals in the challenging role of appraiser It assists with confidence professionalism and competency and contains a comprehensive up to date summary of the state of play for appraising doctors It also includes sample forms contracts for guidance and links to web resources The Appraiser's Handbook provides vital information for all those involved in continuing professional development in primary and secondary care Appraisal leads and managers in primary and secondary care trusts will find it of great interest as will clinical tutors GP tutors and deanery educational teams This book aims to support appraisers in developing their skills in order to ensure that the doctor whom they appraise gains the maximum possible benefit from the time spent in and preparing for the appraisal The appraiser will find appraisees who enthusiastically embrace appraisal and those who doubt its use and place in their professional development Different approaches may be needed to support and understand different individuals Nick Lyons Susanne Caesar and Abayomi McEwen This book written by a trio steeped in appraisal is a valuable resource for appraisers It will help doctors learning to be appraisers and experienced appraisers It will also help those organising appraisal to remind them of the aims of the process Teachers of appraisal will be able to use it to supplement and support their curricula I believe revalidation when it arrives will be the single biggest step towards improvement taken by the profession since the introduction of the medical register I also believe this depends upon the inclusion of appraisal within the revalidation package Putting high quality developmental appraisal in the water for the medical profession will bring about a whole profession shift in terms of lifelong professional development This book will support that aim Maurice Conlon in the Foreword

Managing Teacher

Appraisal and Performance Carol Cardno, David Middlewood, 2002-11-01 The biggest single issue currently facing school managers is how they should appraise their staff and what the implications of the process are This edited collection brings together the latest thinking on the subject from both the UK and overseas and places it directly in the context of school management Issues discussed include the role of appraisal in school leadership and the role of appraisal in developing teachers The importance of this combined with the lack of published material on the subject make this book an essential purchase for all headteachers heads of department INSET co ordinators and postgraduate educational management students
