Chapter 1: Reading Guide

11. Some of the more advanced Native American cultures did all of the following except
- engage in significant ocean voyages of discovery.
 - establish large, elaborate, and bustling cities.
 - make strikingly accurate astronomical observations.
 - study mathematics.
 - carry on commerce.
12. The size and sophistication of Native American civilizations in Mexico and South America can be attributed to

13. The crop that became the staple of life in Mexico and South America was _____
14. _____ cultivation reached other parts of North America considerably later. The timing of its arrival in different localities explains much about the relative rates of development of different Native American peoples.
15. No dense concentrations of population or complex _____ comparable to the Aztec empire existed in North America outside of Mexico at the time of the _____ arrival—one of the reasons for the relative ease with which the European colonizers subdued the native North Americans.
16. The _____ developed the political and organizational skills to sustain a robust military alliance that menaced its neighbors, Native American and European alike, for well over a century
17. Identify the statement that is false.
- Most native peoples of North America lived in small, scattered, and impermanent settlements prior to the arrival of Europeans.
 - In more settled agricultural groups, women tended the crops while men hunted.
 - Many North American groups developed matrilineal cultures, where power and possessions passed down the female side of the family line.
 - Native Americans rejected the belief that the physical world was endowed with spiritual properties.
