Hostile Environment Maya Goodfellow, 2020-09-22 How migrants became the scapegoats of contemporary mainstream politics From the 1960s the UK's immigration policy introduced by both Labour and Tory governments has been a toxic combination of racism and xenophobia Maya Goodfellow tracks this history through to the present day looking at both legislation and rhetoric to show that distinct forms of racism and dehumanisation have produced a confused and draconian immigration system She examines the arguments made against immigration in order to dismantle and challenge them Through interviews with people trying to navigate the system legal experts politicians and campaigners Goodfellow shows the devastating human costs of anti immigration politics and argues for an alternative The new edition includes an additional chapter which explores the impacts of the 2019 election and the ongoing immigration enforcement during the coronavirus pandemic Longlisted for the 2019 Jhalak Prize Online Risk to Children Jon Brown, 2017-07-24 Online Risk to Children brings together the most up to date theory policy and best practices for online child protection and abuse prevention Moves beyond offender assessment and treatment to discuss the impact of online abuse on children themselves and the risks and vulnerabilities inherent in their constantly connected lives Global in scope setting contributions from leading researchers and practitioners in the UK in international context via chapters from Australia the USA and Europe Key topics covered include cyberbullying peer oriented abuse victim treatment approaches international law enforcement strategies policy responses and the role of schools and industry Violent Ignorance Hannah Jones, 2021-01-28 An elected politician is assassinated in the street by a terrorist associated with extreme political groups and the national response is to encourage picnics Thousands of people are held in prison like conditions without judicial oversight or any time limit on their sentence An attempt to reassert national sovereignty and borders leads thousands of citizens to register for dual citizenship with other countries some overcoming family associations with genocide in their second country of nationality to do so This is life in the UK today How then are things still continuing as normal How can we confront these phenomena and why do we so often refuse to What are the practices that help us to accommodate the unconscionable How might we contend with the horrors that meet us each day rather than becoming desensitized to them Violent Ignorance sets out to examine these questions through an understanding of how the past persists in the present how trauma is silenced or reappears and how we might reimagine identity and connection in ways that counter rather than ignore historic violence In particular Hannah Jones shows how border controls and enforcement and its corollary racism and violence have shifted over time Drawing on thinkers from John Berger to Ben Okri from Audre Lorde to Susan Sontag the book questions what it means to belong and discusses how hierarchies of belonging are revealed by what we can see and what we can ignore The Candidate Alex Nunns, 2018-01-30 Drawing on first hand interviews with those involved in the campaign including its most senior figures Nunns traces the origins of Jeremy Corbyn's remarkable ascent in British politics Information for a Better World: Normality, Virtuality, Physicality,

Women of Westminster Rachel Reeves, 2019-03-07 In 1919 Nancy Astor was elected as the Member of Parliament for Plymouth Sutton becoming the first woman MP to take her seat in the House of Commons Her achievement was all the more remarkable given that women and even then only some women had only been entitled to vote for just over a year In the past 100 years a total of 491 women have been elected to Parliament Yet it was not until 2016 that the total number of women ever elected surpassed the number of male MPs in a single parliament The achievements of these political pioneers have been remarkable Britain has now had two female Prime Ministers and women MPs have made significant strides in fighting for gender equality from the earliest suffrage campaigns to Barbara Castle's fight for equal pay to Harriet Harman's recent legislation on the gender pay gap Yet the stories of so many women MPs have too often been overlooked in political histories In this book Rachel Reeves brings forgotten MPs out of the shadows and looks at the many battles fought by the Women of Westminster from 1919 to 2019

Stop Mugging Grandma Jennie Bristow, 2019-08-13 A decisive intervention in the war between generations asking who stands to gain from conflict between baby boomers and millennials Millennials have been incited to regard their parents generation as entitled and selfish and to blame the baby boomers of the Sixties for the cultural and economic problems of today But is it true that young people have been victimized by their elders In this book Jennie Bristow looks at generational labels and the groups of people they apply to Bristow argues that the prominence and popularity of terms like baby boomer millennial and snowflake in mainstream media operates as a smoke screen directing attention away from important issues such as housing education pensions and employment Bristow systematically disputes the myths that surround the generational war exposing it to be nothing more than a tool by which the political and social elite can avoid public scrutiny With her lively and engaging style Bristow highlights the major issues and concerns surrounding the sociological blame game
