Be Loyal Matthew Following The King Of Kings The Be Series Commentary:

Be Loyal (Matthew) Warren W. Wiersbe, 2010-01-01 Matthew's gospel focuses on the Kingship of Christ that Jesus is Lord of Lords the Messiah the One promised by the prophets of old But a king is not born in a manger to a virgin peasant and a king is definitely not executed on a Roman cross is he Actually that's exactly the type of King God sent to the world While the Jews were looking for a political king to save them from Roman oppression God sent them and the rest of the world a different type of Savior one that would reconcile God's people to himself once for all Pastor author and Bible teacher Warren Wiersbe highlights significant cultural and historical aspects that arise in Matthew's gospel to paint for readers a clearer picture of this glorious unexpected but all satisfying King of Kings

Theologies of Childhood and the Children of Africa Jan Grobbelaar, Gert Breed, Alfred Brunson, Marcia J. Bunge, Sam Ndogo, Hannes (J.J.) Knoetze, Nico

Vorster, 2016-12-31 The purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from Africa on Child Theologies from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic The book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the African context In the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from Africa in this academic field It wants to convey the importance of considering Africa's children in theologising The different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of Africa's children The individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book Almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research which the authors have done in the past Most of the academic literature in the field of Theologies of Childhood is from American or British European origin The African context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges This book was written by theological scholars from Africa focussing on Africa's children It addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change Written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and African cultural or social themes It addresses themes and provide insights that is also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field No part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere before
