Beauty Pageant Onstage Questions:

The Most Beautiful Girl in the World Sarah Banet-Weiser, 2023-04-28 Sarah Banet Weiser complicates the standard feminist take on beauty pageants in this intriguing look at a hotly contested but enduringly popular American ritual. She focuses on the Miss America pageant in particular, considering its claim to be an accurate representation of the diversity of contemporary American women. Exploring the cultural constructions and legitimations that go on during the long process of the pageant, Banet Weiser depicts the beauty pageant stage as a place where concerns about national identity, cultural hopes and desires, and anxieties about race and gender are crystallized and condensed. The beauty pageant, she convincingly demonstrates, is a profoundly political arena deserving of serious study. Drawing on cultural criticism, ethnographic research, and interviews with pageant participants and officials, The Most Beautiful Girl in the World illustrates how contestants invent and reinvent themselves while articulating the female body as a national body. Banet Weiser finds that most pageants are characterized by the ambivalence of contemporary liberal feminism, which encourages individual achievement, self-determination, and civic responsibility while simultaneously promoting very conventional notions of beauty. The book explores the many different aspects of the Miss America pageant, including the swimsuit, the interview, and the talent competitions. It also takes a closer look at some extraordinary Miss Americas, such as Bess Myerson, the first Jewish Miss America; Vanessa Williams, the first African American Miss America; and Heather Whitestone, the first Miss America with a disability. Beauty Queens on the Global Stage Colleen Ballerion Cohen, Richard Wilk, Beverly Stoeltje, 2013-09-13 Modern beauty contests were invented by P. T. Barnum in the United States, but in the 20th century, pageants and contests have spread across the entire world, from Nepal to Tierra Del Fuego. Why are women, and sometimes men, in drag parading on stage, such a universally appealing spectacle, attracting an audience in the billions? This book is the first global comparison of pageants from different parts of the world, at the ways each contest is both intensely local and unique and simultaneously global and remarkable, repetitious. The authors use the latest tools of feminist ethnographic and literary scholarship to unpack and interpret one of the greatest and most universal spectacles of modern times.
