Beyond Jihad Lamin O. Sanneh, 2016 Over the course of the last 1400 years Islam has grown from a small band of followers on the Arabian peninsula into a global religion of over a billion believers How did this happen The usual answer is that Islam spread by the sword believers waged jihad against rival tribes and kingdoms and forced them to convert Lamin Sanneh argues that this is far from the whole story Beyond Jihad examines the origin and evolution of the African pacifist tradition in Islam beginning with an inquiry into the faith's origins and expansion in North Africa and its transmission across trans-Saharan trade routes to West Africa. The book focuses on the ways in which, without jihad, the religion spread and took hold and what that tells us about the nature of religious and social change. At the heart of this process were clerics who used religious and legal scholarship to promote Islam. Once this clerical class emerged, it offered continuity and stability in the midst of political changes and cultural shifts, helping to inhibit the spread of radicalism and subduing the urge to wage jihad. With its policy of religious and inter-ethnic accommodation, this pacifist tradition took Islam beyond traditional trade routes and kingdoms into remote districts of the Mali Empire, instilling a patient Sufi-inspired and jihad-negating impulse into religious life and practice. Islam was successful in Africa, Sanneh argues, not because of military might but because it was made African by Africans who adapted it to a variety of contexts. Intellectuals in the Modern Islamic World Stephane A. Dudoignon, Komatsu Hisao, Kosugi Yasushi, 2006-09-27 Incorporating a rich series of case studies covering a range of geographical areas, this collection of essays examines the history of modern intellectuals in the Islamic world throughout the twentieth century. The contributors reassess the typology and history of various scholars, providing significant diachronic analysis of the different forms of communication, learning, and authority. While each chapter presents a separate regional case with an historically and geographically different background, the volume discloses commonalities, similarities, and intellectual echoes through its comparative approach. Consisting of two parts, the volume focuses first on al-Manar, the influential journal published between 1898 and 1935 that inspired much imagination and arguments among local intelligentsias all over the Islamic world. The second part discusses the formation, transmission, and transformation of learning and authority from the Middle East to Central and Southeast Asia. Constituting a milestone in comparative studies of the modern Islamic world, this book highlights the range of and transformation in the role of intellectuals in Islamic societies. The Sea in the Middle Thomas E. Burman, Brian A. Catlos, Mark D. Meyerson, 2022-08-23 The Sea in the Middle presents an original and revisionist narrative of the development of the medieval west from late antiquity to the dawn of modernity. This textbook is uniquely centered on the Mediterranean and emphasizes the role played by peoples and cultures of Africa, Asia, and Europe in an age when Christians, Muslims, and Jews of various denominations engaged with each other in both conflict and collaboration. Key features: Fifteen chapter structure to aid classroom use. Sections in each chapter that feature key artifacts relevant to chapter themes. Dynamic visuals including 190 photos and 20 maps. The Sea in the Middle and its sourcebook companion, Texts from the Middle, pair together to provide a framework and materials that guide students through this complex but essential history, one that will appeal to the diverse student bodies of today. Four Wise Men Mark W. Muesse, 2018-01-01 Confucius, the Buddha, Jesus, and Muhammad are among the most thoughtful and influential people in history. By their words and examples, they have inspired countless individuals to live better and more meaningful lives and have shaped the institutions and worldviews we know today. Four Wise Men is an accessible introduction to each of these sages, viewed in their historical context and a provocative comparison of their lives and teachings Through careful study Four Wise Men examines the ways these fascinating figures speak as one as well as the ways in which they differ Although their voices come from the distant past these men still have wise words to say to us today

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 Retranslating the Bible and the Qur'an Pieter Boulogne, Marijke H. de Lang, Joseph Verheyden, Despite the lively scholarly discourse on retranslation and its manifest value for uncovering dynamics of cultural change interpretation and reception the retranslation of religious texts has received only fragmented attention in recent years By spanning both historical and current aspects and by treating the Bible and the Qur'an together this book breaks new ground and paves the way for future research on the myriad discursive and religious aspects of retranslation This carefully curated collection of articles compellingly argues that the retranslation of canonical religious texts is a multi faceted phenomenon With cases ranging in time from the early Reformation to the present and traversing linguistic contexts from Russia to Sweden Slovenia to Saudi Arabia the essays capture diverse dimensions of retranslation work The collection demonstrates that retranslations of such texts manifest in different forms depending on the religious political and societal circumstances the targeted audiences and the status of existing translations Their reception too may vary greatly depending on those same circumstances Authored by specialists in the different fields of retranslation of the Bible and the Qur'an each contribution illustrates this complexity and offers a fresh perspective and insight that help lay the groundwork for future research in this area of study
