The Astral Plane C. W. Leadbeater, 2021-07-08 Reference to the astral plane or K maloka as it is called in Sanskrit has frequently been made by Theosophical writers and a good deal of information on the subject of this realm of nature is to be found scattered here and there in our books but there is not so far as I am aware any single volume to which one can turn for a complete summary of the facts at present known to us about this interesting region The object of this manual is to collect and make some attempt to arrange this scattered information and also to supplement it slightly in cases where new facts have come to our knowledge It must be understood that any such additions are only the result of the investigations of a few explorers and must not therefore be taken as in any way authoritative but are given simply for what they are worth On the other hand every precaution in our power has been taken to ensure accuracy no fact old or new being admitted to this manual unless it has been confirmed by the testimony of at least two independent trained investigators among ourselves and has also been passed as correct by older students whose knowledge on these points is necessarily much greater than ours It is hoped therefore that this account of the astral plane though it cannot be considered as quite complete may yet be found reliable as far as it goes ASTRAL PLANE C. Inhabitants and Phenomena No one can get a clear conception of the teachings of the wisdom religion until he has at any rate an intellectual grasp of the fact that in our solar system there exist perfectly definite planes each with its own matter of different degrees of density and that some of these planes can be Visited and observed by persons who have qualified themselves for the work exactly as a foreign country might be visited and observed and that by comparison of the observations of those who are constantly working on these planes evidence can be obtained of their existence and nature at least as satisfactory as that which most of us have for the existence of Greenland or Spitzbergen Further more just as any man who has the means and chooses to take the trouble can go and see Greenland or Spitz bergen for himself so any man who chooses to take the trouble to qualify himself by living the necessary life can in time come to see these higher planes on his own account About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Inhabitants and Phenomena Astral Mysticism C W Leadbeater The astral plane also called the astral world is a plane of existence postulated by classical particularly neo Platonic medieval oriental and esoteric philosophies and mystery religions It is the world of the planetary spheres crossed by the soul in its astral body on the way to being born and after death and generally said to be populated by angels spirits or other immaterial beings In the late 19th and early 20th century the term was popularised by Theosophy and neo Rosicrucianism The Barzakh olam mithal or intermediate world in Islam and the World of Yetzirah in Lurianic Kabbalah are related concepts Plato and Aristotle taught that the stars were composed of a type of matter different from the four earthly elements a fifth ethereal element or quintessence In the astral mysticism of the classical world the human psyche was composed of the same material thus accounting for the influence of the stars upon human affairs In his commentaries on Plato s Timaeus Proclus wrote Man is a little world mikros kosmos For just like the Whole he possesses both mind and reason both a divine and a mortal body He is also divided up according to the universe It is for this reason you know that some are accustomed to say that his consciousness corresponds with the nature of the fixed stars his reason in its contemplative aspect with Saturn and in its social aspect with Jupiter and as to his irrational part the passionate nature with Mars the eloquent with Mercury the appetitive with Venus the sensitive with the Sun and the vegetative with the Moon

Astral Plane C. W. Leadbeater, 2006-09 Few words are needed in sending this little book out into the world It is designed to meet the public demand for a simple exposition of Theosophical teachings Some have complained that our literature is at once too abstruse too technical and too expensive for the ordinary reader and it is our hope that the present series may succeed in supplying what is a very real want Theosophy is not only for the learned it is for all Perhaps among those who in these little books catch their first glimpse of its teachings there may be a few who will be led by them to penetrate more deeply into its philosophy its science and its religion facing its abstruser problems with the student s zeal and the neophyte s ardour But these Manuals are not written only for the eager student whom no initial difficulties can daunt they are written for the busy men and women of the work a day world and seek to make plain some of the great truths that render life easier to bear and death easier to face Written by servants of the Masters who are the Elder Brothers of our race they can have no other object than to serve our fellow men The Astral Plane C. The Astral Plane C W Leadbeater,2020-08-23 First of all then it must be understood that the astral plane has seven subdivisions each of which has its corresponding degree of materiality and its corresponding condition of matter Now numbering these from the highest and least material downwards we find that they naturally fall into three classes divisions 1 2 and 3 forming one such class and 4 5 and 6 another while the seventh and lowest of all stands alone The difference between the matter of one of these classes and the next would be commensurable with that between a solid and a liquid while the difference between the matter of the subdivisions of a class would rather resemble that between two kinds of solid such as say steel and sand Putting aside for the moment the seventh we may say that divisions 4 5 and 6 of the astral plane have for their background the physical world we live in and all its familiar accessories Life on the sixth division is simply our ordinary life on this earth minus the physical body and its necessities while as it ascends through the fifth and fourth divisions it becomes less and less material and is more and more withdrawn from our lower world and its interests
